Rawlings administrator as aforesaid, the quantity of pounds Tobacco for the costs and charges which he hath sustained in and about his defence in this behalf since the last continuance of the plea aforesaid. Therefore as before let a Jury thereon come before the Court here, on the second tuesday of May next, by whom and soforth, and who neither and soforth to recognize and soforth, because as well and soforth, the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, then & there and soforth. Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties aforesaid, by consent of the said parties and their attornies aforesaid, and by order of the Court here thereon is further continued until the said second tuesday of May next. And now on this day to wit, the said second tuesday of May being the ninth day of the same month in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, comes again into the General Court here as well the said Jonathan Rawlings administrator as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, as the said Lewis Duvall by his attornies aforesaid. Whereupon to try the issue aforesaid between the parties aforesaid above joined to be tried by the Country, the Jurors of the Jury whereof mention is within made, being called come, that is to say. Alexander Greer, William Didenhour, Philip Jenkins, William Billingsley, Thomas Reynolds Thomas Harrico, William Simpson, Elias Bolcker, Thomas Blackstone Joseph Rawlings, Edward Burgess Junior and Daniel Clarke Junior who being duly elected tried and sworn to say the truth in the premises upon their oath do say that the said Lewis did not pay to the said Francis Rawlings in his lifetime the said sum of eight hundred pounds Current money parcel of the rent aforesaid and after the death of him the said Francis he the said Lewis did not pay to the said Sarah in her life time the said sum of one thousand pounds Current money the residue of the rent aforesaid and they do find the sum of six hundred and seventeen pounds fifteen shillings Current money, really and justly due upon the writing obligatory aforesaid. Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said Jonathan Rawlings administrator as aforesaid recover against the said Lewis Duvall as well the sum of Three thousand three hundred and thirty three pounds six shillings and eight pence current money the value of two thousand pounds sterling money his debt aforesaid. To be released on the payment of the said sum of six hundred and seventeen pounds fifteen shillings current money by the Jurors aforesaid in form aforesaid found, with interest thereon from the twenty ninth day of May seventeen hundred and ninety seven, until paid, as the sum of ~~eleven~~ sixteen dollars and fifty cents, and the quantity of one thousand five hundred and fifty three pounds tobacco, by the Court here unto the said Jonathan Rawlings administrator as aforesaid on, on his assent adjudged for his damages which he hath sustained as well by reason of the detention of that debt as for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended. And the said Lewis Duvall in mercy and soforth. Memorandum at the time of the signing of the Judgment in this cause, the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid files in Court here the following agreement to wit, It is agreed, that all Errors in this Case are released. The plaintiff agrees to receive the amount of the sum due and Costs in three equal payments, the first on the first day of December next, the second on the first day of June 1798 and the remaining one third and Interest and costs on the 1st day of December 1798 with liberty to the plaintiff to take out Execution for the whole debt Interest & Costs on default of either of the payments at the times and in the manner herein stipulated. May 29th 1797 Philip B Key for Plff John T Mason for Deft.

Memorandum at the Trial of this Cause the Honorable Gabriel Duvall withdrew from the Bench.

Test John Gwinn Clk

George Schnertzell use of James Hunters Executors vs
James Chapline

Be it Remembered that heretofore on the twenty fifth day of October in the year of our lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety three George Schnertzell by Luther Martin his Attorney sued out of the Genral Court the writ of the State of Maryland of Capias ad respondendum directed to the Sheriff of Washington County in manner and form following to wit, The State of Maryland Sct. To the Sheriff of Washington County Greeting we command you that you take James Chapline late of Washington County farmer if he shall be found in your bailiwick and him safe keep so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of May next, to answer unto George Schnertzell of a plea of Trespass upon the Case and soforth. hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honorable Samuel Chase Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court the 8th day of October Anno Domini 1793.

Issued the 25th day of October 1793. L M Jno Gwinn Clk

And the said George Schnertzell by his attorney aforesaid declared against the said James Chapline in the plea aforesaid in manner and form following to wit, Washington County to wit, James Chapline late of Washington County farmer was attached to answer unto George Schnertzell of a plea of trespass upon the Case and soforth. And whereupon the said George Schnertzell by Luther Martin his attorney Complains that whereas the aforesaid James after the first day of May in the year seventeen hundred and five to wit, on the twenty seventh day of March in the year seventeen hundred and eighty nine at Washington County aforesaid made his certain note in writing,