Inventory of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the said Isaac Levy deceased, into the office for probate of wills for Baltimore County aforesaid, at or before the ninth day of January next ensuing the date of the said writing obligatory, or at any time since, but the said Inventory of all and singular the goods Chattels and credits of the said Isaac to make and exhibit into the office aforesaid, the said Benjamin did and hath altogether refused and neglected to wit, at Baltimore County aforesaid, and this the said Luther Martin who as attorney for the said State in this part prosecuteth is ready to verify and so forth. And the said Luther Martin who for the said State in this part prosecuteth further saith, that on the tenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty three at Baltimore County aforesaid there remained in the hands of the said Benjamin Levy, as administrator of all and singular the goods chattels and credits which were of the said Isaac Levy, at the time of his death, as settled by the said Benjamin Levy, after all payments, disbursements and allowances deducted, the sum of seven hundred and sixty five pounds, seventeen shillings and eleven pence Current money as by the account of the said Benjamin Levy administrator as aforesaid into the office for probate of wills for Baltimore County aforesaid may appear. And the said Luther Martin who for the said State, in this part prosecuteth further saith, that the said Isaac Levy departed this life on the first day of January in the year seventeen hundred and seventy eight at Baltimore County aforesaid, and then and there left two children to wit, Asher Levy and Henrietta Levy, who were legally entitled under the last will of the said Isaac Levy and as the representatives of the said Isaac Levy to the aforesaid sum of seven hundred and sixty five pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence current money after the death of the said Isaac Levy as aforesaid as by the said last will may appear. And the said Luther Martin who for the said State in this part prosecuteth, further saith, that the said Asher Levy departed this life on the first day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty four at Baltimore County aforesaid, having first made his last will and testament in writing and therein and thereby bequeathed all his part of the said Isaac Levy's Estate unto the said Henrietta and appointed the said Henrietta together with the said Mathias Williamson who hath intermarried with the said Henrietta since the death of the said Isaac Levy Executors of his said will, as by the said will duly proved and recorded, may appear; And the said Luther Martin who for the said State in this part prosecuteth in fact saith, that the said Benjamin Levy altho often thereto requested, at the County aforesaid, aforesaid did not pay to the said Asher Levy in his lifetime or to the said Henrietta or either of them since his intermarriage with the said Henrietta the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and credits of the said Isaac Levy after all payments allowances and disbursements deducted as aforesaid amounting to the sum of seven hundred and sixty five pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence Current money or any part thereof, neither hath the said Benjamin in the Condition aforesaid mentioned paid the same or any part thereof to the said Mathias Williamson and Henrietta his wife or either of them, since their intermarriage as aforesaid by reason whereof the said Benjamin hath not well and truly administered the goods Chattels and credits of the said Isaac Levy according to law and the Condition of the writing obligatory aforesaid and this the said Luther Martin who for the said State in this part prosecuteth is ready to verify wherefore he prays Judgment for the debt aforesaid together with the damages occasioned by the detention of the said debt to the State to be adjudged and so forth. And hereupon the said State of Maryland by Luther Martin attorney for the said State who for the said State in this behalf prosecuteth prays that the aforesaid Benjamin Levy may rejoin to the replication of the said State of Maryland above set forth by the twentieth day of February next: Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid, by order of the Court here thereon is further continued untill the second tuesday of May then next following. At which said second tuesday of May being the twelfth day of the same month Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety five comes again here into our general Court as well the said State of Maryland by Luther Martin and Richard Ridgely its attornies, who for the said State in this behalf prosecuteth, as the aforesaid Benjamin Levy by David M'Mechen and William Pitty his attornies, And the said Benjamin Levy by his attornies aforesaid saith that he by any thing in the replication of the said State above in pleading alledged the said Benjamin to be charged with the debt and damages aforesaid ought not because he saith that he the said Benjamin hath fully administered all the goods and Chattels which were of the aforesaid Isaac Levy at the time of his death in his hands to be administered and that he hath not no on the day of the impetration of the original writ in this Cause or ever after had any goods or Chattels which were of the said Isaac Levy at the time of his death in his hands to be administered wherewith he the rest and residue of the goods Chattels and credits of the said Isaac Levy (over and above the payment of the just debts due from the said Isaac Levy) to the said Asher,
