The oyer of the writing obligatory aforesaid, and the Condition thereof follows in these words to wit. Know all Men by these presents, that we William Worthington Jeremiah Crabb & Charles Perry are held and firmly bound unto the State of Maryland the full and just sum of five thousand pounds Current money, to be paid to the said State, to the which payment well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs, Executors and administrators, in the whole and for the whole, jointly and severally firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this 2nd day of June 1791. The Condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound William Worthington administrator of all and singular, the goods Chattels and Credits of Joseph Wilson late of Montgomery County deceased with a coppy of his will annexed do make or cause to be made a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods, Chattels and Credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands possession or knowledge of the said William Worthington or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same so made do exhibit or cause to be exhibited into the registry of our orphans Court, at or before the 2nd day of September next insuing, and the same goods Chattels and credits and all other the goods Chattels and Credits of the said deceased, at the time of his death, which at any time after shall come to the hands or possession of the said William Worthington or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to Law Viz shall pay the debts of the said deceased, so far forth as his personal Estate will extend and the Law will charge, as also all such reasonable charges and fees as have arisen or shall arise, or become due from the said William Worthington on account of the said deceased or his estate, and further do make or cause to be made a true and just account of said administration at or before the 2nd day of June next, and all the rest and residue of the said goods Chattels and Credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrators account, the same being first examined and adjudged by the Judges of the orphans Court, for the time being, shall deliver and pay unto the person or persons appointed by Law to receive the same, then the above obligation to be void, and of no effect, or else to stand and remain in full force and Virtue

Signed Sealed and delivered in the presence of Saml. Turner } William Worthington (seal) Jeremiah Crabb (seal) Charles Perry (seal)

A copy of the aforegoing declaration and bond was made and sent with the writ which issued in the plea aforesaid. At which said second tuesday of May being the twelfth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety five, comes into the General Court here the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid, and the Sheriff of Montgomery County to wit, Benjamin Ray Junr to whom the said writ was,

was in form aforesaid directed likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed to wit

Cepi Copy left 18th April. Benjn Ray Junr Sheriff

And the said Jeremiah Crabb by Luther Martin his attorney appears in Court here and defends the force and injury when and foforth and prays leave of the Court to imparle hereunto untill the second tuesday of October next and he hath it, the same day is given to the said State of Maryland also. At which said second tuesday of October being the thirteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety five comes again into the General Court here as well the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid Jeremiah Crabb by his attorneys aforesaid. And the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid, prays that the said Jeremiah Crabb may answer to his declaration aforesaid in the plea aforesaid, by the twentieth day of February next, and thereupon it is said to the said Jeremiah Crabb that if he doth not answer to the declaration aforesaid of the aforesaid State of Maryland by the said twentieth day of February next. Judgment will be entered against him by default; and thereupon the said Jeremiah Crabb by his attorneys aforesaid as before defends the force and injury when and foforth and prays leave of the Court to imparle hereunto until the second tuesday of May next; and to him it is granted the same day is given to the said State of Maryland also. At which said second tuesday of May being the tenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety six comes again here into the General Court as well the said State of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid as the said Jeremiah Crabb by his attorneys aforesaid, and the aforesaid Jeremiah Crabb by his attornies aforesaid comes and defends the force and injury when &c and prays hearing of the writing obligatory aforesaid and of the Condition thereof and it is read unto him in these words &c Know all Men by these present that we William Worthington Jeremiah Crabb & Charles Perry are held and firmly bound unto the State of Maryland the full and just sum of five thousand pounds of Current money, to be paid to the said State, to the which payment well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves and each of us, our and each of our heirs Executors and administrators, in the whole and for the whole jointly and severally firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this 2nd day of June 1791. The Condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William Worthington administrator of all and singular the goods Chattels and Credits of Joseph Wilson late of Montgomery County deceased with a coppy of his will annexed do make or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods Chattels and Credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands possession or knowledge of the said William Worthington or into the hands and possession of,