Subscriber one of the Judges of the General Court and made oath that Robert Morris not being a Citizen of this State and not residing therein is bonâ fide indebted unto him the said Notley Young in the sum of five thousand one hundred and nineteen pounds five shillings and ninepence current money over and above all discounts: The said Notley Young at the same time made oath that he doth know, and is credibly informed and verily believes that the said Robert Morris the said Debtor is not a Citizen of this State and doth not reside therein.

Sworn before G. Duvall.

Philadelphia Septr. 26th 1794.

Two years after date I promise to pay to the order of John Nicholson Esqr. ten thousand six hundred Dollrs at the house of Messrs Lear & Co. at George Town (negotiable at the bank of Columbia) for value received.

$10.600 Ds (Endorsed) Robert Morris

Jnd. Nicholson, James Greenleaf.

State of Maryland, Montgomery County to wit; Be it known, that I Samuel Hanson of Samt. Notary Public for the County aforesaid, dwelling in George Town in said County duly commissioned and sworn, this day went to the house of Lear & Co. the place of payment mentioned in a note whereof the above is a true Copy and demanded of the said Lear & Co. payment of the sum of ten thousand six hundred dollars in the said note specified and received for answer from the said Lear & Co. that no money had been left with them for payment of the said note Wherefore and at the request of Notley Young I do protest against the said Robert Morris the drawer and against the said John Nicholson and James Greenleaf the endorsers of said note for the aforesaid sum of ten thousand six hundred Dollrs together with all legal interest, damages costs and charges which have accrued or may accrue by reason or occasion of the premises.
