said Luther Martin above in pleading alleged, ought not to be precluded from having or maintaining her action aforesaid against him because she saith, that the said Luther Martin hath not paid to her the said Margaret Cresap the said sum of money in the Condition aforesaid mentioned with the Interest thereon in manner and form as the said Luther Martin above by pleading hath alleged, and this she prays may be enquired of by the Country: and the said Luther Martin in like manner and so forth: Therefore let a Jury thereon come before the Court here on the second tuesday of May next by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth, to recognize and so forth, because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the parties aforesaid then and there and so forth.

And now, at this day to wit, the said second tuesday of May being the eighth day of the same month in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight; come again into the General Court here, as well the said Margaret Cresap by her attorney aforesaid, as the said Luther Martin in his proper person. Thereupon the said Luther Martin in his proper person relinquisheth the averment aforesaid above by him pretended, and saith that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Margaret Cresap so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the said Margaret Cresap the said sum of Four hundred pounds current money in manner and form as the said Margaret Cresap above against him hath declared. Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said Margaret Cresap do recover against the said Luther Martin as well the said sum of Four hundred pounds Current money the Debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed, as the quantity of seven hundred and three pounds of tobacco adjudged by the Court here unto her the said Margaret Cresap with her assent as well for her damages sustained by reason of the detention of the said Debt, as for the Costs and charges by her laid out and expended about her suit in this behalf: And the said Luther Martin in Mercy and so forth.
