Test. Jno Gwinn Cl.

State of Maryland against Overton Carr.	Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the seventh day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven;

The State of Maryland by Luther Martin its Attorney sues out of the General Court here, the writ of the said State of Capias ad respondendum directed to the Sheriff of Prince Georges County in form following to wit.

The State of Maryland &c. To the Sheriff of Prince Georges County Greeting. We command you that you take Overton Carr Late of Prince Georges County Gentleman, otherwise called Overton Carr of Prince Georges County if he shall be found in your bailiwick and him safe keep, so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second tuesday of May next, to answer unto the State of Maryland of a plea that he render unto the said State the full and just sum of One hundred and six pounds seven shillings current money which to the said State he owes and unjustly detains and so forth. Here of fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honorable Robert Goldsborough Esquire chief Judge of our said Court the 12th day of December Anno Dominii 1796. Issued the 7th day of March 1797. (L. Martin) John Gwinn Cl.

And the said State of Maryland by its Attorney aforesaid on the (day) day of the date and issuing of the aforegoing writ, filed in Court here the Declaration of the said State against the said Overton Carr in the plea aforesaid, and the specialty thereto annexed; a Copy whereof was made and sent with the said writ, to the Sheriff of the County aforesaid in form following to wit.

Western Shore, State of Maryland. Prince Georges County &c. Overton Carr Late of Prince Georges County Gentleman, otherwise called Overton Carr of Prince Georges County was summoned to answer unto the State of Maryland of a plea that he render unto the said State the full and just sum of One hundred and six pounds seven shillings current money which to the said State he owes and unjustly detains and so forth: And whereupon the said State of Maryland by Luther Martin its Attorney saith that whereas the aforesaid Overton Carr on the Nineteenth day of June in the year One thousand seven hundred and ninety three at Prince Georges County aforesaid, by his certain writing Obligatory, acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the aforesaid State of Maryland in the aforesaid sum of One hundred and six pounds seven Shillings current money to be paid to the said State of Maryland when afterwards he should be thereunto required.

Nevertheless the aforesaid Overton Carr (although often thereunto required) the aforesaid sum of One hundred and six pounds seven shillings current money to the said State of Maryland hath not rendered or paid, but the same sum of current money to the said State of Maryland hitherto to render or pay he hath altogether refused, and still doth refuse; wherefore the said State of Maryland is the worse and hath damage to the value of One hundred pounds Current money and therefore the said State brings suit and so forth; and brings here into Court the writing Obligatory aforesaid, Sealed with the seal of the aforesaid Overton Carr which the Debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid witnesseth, the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid and so forth.

L. Martin for the Plaff. Pledges, and so forth, John Doe, & Richard Roe.

State of Maryland to wit, Know all Men by these presents that we James Moore of Benjamin and Overton Carr of Prince Georges County are held and firmly bound unto the State of Maryland in the full and just sum of One hundred and six pounds seven shillings current money to be paid unto the said State of Maryland, to which payment well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves and each of us our and each of our Heirs, Executors and Administrators jointly and (severally)
