reversal of the Judgment aforesaid by him the aforesaid William Tongue to be assigned, until the second Tuesday of October next, and then to assign those Errors for the reversal of the Judgment aforesaid in the Record and proceedings aforesaid rendered, and to him it is granted, the same day is given to the said John Hartlove also.

At which said second Tuesday of October being the tenth day of the same month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven (to which said day the aforesaid William Tongue had leave to Imparle and then to assign those Errors for the reversal of the Judgment aforesaid in the Record and proceedings rendered supposed to be therein) come again into the General Court here; as well the aforesaid William Tongue by his Attornies aforesaid, as the said John Hartlove by his Attorney aforesaid, And the aforesaid William Tongue by his Attornies aforesaid comes and saith, that in the Record and Process aforesaid likewise in the rendering of Judgment aforesaid there is manifest Error, in this, to wit, that by the Record and process aforesaid it does appear that the Judgment aforesaid, was given for the said John Hartlove against the aforesaid William Tongue, Whereas by the Law of the Land that Judgment ought to have been given for the aforesaid William Tongue against the said John Hartlove; therefore in that it is manifest erred; and prays that the Judgment aforesaid for those errors and others in the Record and process aforesaid being, may be revolved, annulled and utterly for nothing had and that the aforesaid William Tongue to all things which by occasion of the Judgment aforesaid he hath lost may be restored; and that the said John Hartlove may rejoin to the said Errors and that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the Record and proceedings aforesaid as of the matter aforesaid above assigned for Error and that the Judgment may be given for the aforesaid William Tongue against the said John Hartlove for his Damages sustained by reason of the Errors in the Record and proceedings aforesaid mentioned and so forth

And the said John Hartlove by his Attorney aforesaid, says, that there is no Error in the Record and Proceedings aforesaid; or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid; and prays likewise that the Court here may proceed to the examination as well of the Record and proceedings aforesaid as of the matters aforesaid by the aforesaid William Tongue above for Error assigned; and that the Judgment aforesaid may be in all things affirmed and so forth, But because the Court here; are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid, before the Court here until the second Tuesday of May next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised &c.

And now at this day, to wit, the said second Tuesday of May being the eighth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid William Tongue by his Attornies aforesaid, as the said John Hartlove by his Attorney aforesaid, Whereupon as well the Record and proceedings aforesaid, and the Judgment given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid by the aforesaid William Tongue above for Error assigned being seen heard and fully understood by the Court, and mature deliberation had thereupon; for that it appears to the Court nowhere, that there is no Error either in the Record and Proceedings aforesaid, or in the given the Judgment aforesaid; Therefore it is Considered by the said Court, that the Judgment aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed; And it is further considered that the said John Hartlove recover against the aforesaid William Tongue his Damages Costs and charges aforesaid, so as aforesaid rendered in the said County Court of Prince Georges, as also the sum of Fourteen pounds eighteen shillings and four pence Current money and quantity of Seven hundred and forty two pounds of Tobacco, adjudges to him the said John Hartlove by the Court now here (on his assent) according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, for as well additional Damages as for his Costs and Charges, which he hath sustained by occasion of the delay of the execution of the Judgment aforesaid, by means of prosecuting the said Writ of Error, and that he have Execution thereof &c.

Memorandum. Judgment affirmed in this Cause on the Twelfth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight with Costs of Suit, and Fourteen pounds eighteen shillings and four pence Current Money additional Damages agreed by consent, And the Defendant in Error agrees to stay Execution until the first day of August next.
