Charles Carroll's Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of Mary Robinson aged about thirty nine years deposeth and saith that the house now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County was bilt in the year 1778 and further this deponant saith not. Taken and subscribed to this 15th day of April 1797 on the part of the Plaintiffs Mary her X mark Robinson.

Charles Carroll's Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of Thomas Robinson aged about fifty three years deposeth and saith that the House now shown to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County has been bilt about nineteen years ago, Question by the Defendant asked the year it was built, This Deponant he saith that he does not know the year that the said House was bilt and further this deponant saith not, Taken and subscribed to this 15th day of April 1797 on the part of the Plaintiff

Thomas Robinson

Charles Carrolls Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of Charles Ridgely of Wm aged about Forty eight years deposeth and saith that the House now shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County to the best of his recollection was Bilt in the latter part of the year 1777 or the beginning of the year 1778 and further this deponant saith that the House aforesaid he is confident was not here in the year 1768 and further this deponant saith not, Taken and sworn to this 19th day of April 1797 on the part of the Plaintiff

Cha. Ridgely of Wm

Charles Carroll's Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of William Lemmon aged sixty one years being duly sworn, deposeth and saith, that about the place now shewn by him to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County there stood a fence in the year seventeen hundred and seventy seven, and further saith that the place between this fence and the fence he proved last (which last fence he has behaved was put up by the Defendants 14 or 15 years ago) was in an open common, and further this deponant saith not. Taken and subscribed this 1st day of May 1797.

William his X mark Lemmon

Charles Carroll & Co. Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of William Lemmon aged sixty one deposeth and saith that the place he now sheweth to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County stood a fence that was put up by the Defendants about fourteen or fifteen years ago, Question by the Plaintiff, How long since the fence on the third line of the cultivation number two, two has been put up by the Defendants, Ans. To the best of my knowledge it has not been put up more than four or five years and further saith not, Taken and subscribed this first day of May 1797.

William his X mark Lemmon

Charles Carroll & Co. Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of Charles Ridgely of William aged 48 years being duly sworn deposeth and saith that the place shewn to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County, soon after the year 1793, he was anxious to know the bounds of his Land and called on Mr. John Calvert and he believes Mr. Caleb Owings, who shew him this place (where there then was a small heap of Stones) for the second boundary of United Friendship - these two red Oaks was then marked, but do not remember that the Locust was, that he was so well satisfied of the spot being the true boundary that he soon after fixed part of the fence dividing his fields from the late Col. Taylor's; and has continued ever since to occupy his Land agreeably to st division; and further saith that some years after being shewn the same by the said Calvert & Owings, he was shewn the same place by Thomas Lawson for the second Tree of United Friendship, together for a boundary of Taylor's Lot and other Lands, and to the best of his recollection the said Lawson told him he had bounded the two black Oaks at the time; he resurveyed Col Taylor's Lands and called them Taylor's Lott and further saith not. Taken and subscribed this 1st day of May 1797.

Cha. Ridgely of Wm

Charles Carroll & Co. Lessee
vs
Edward & Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of Richard Morris aged about thirty three years, being duly sworn deposeth and saith, that about the place now shewn by him to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County there stood a fence upwards of twenty years ago and further saith that the space between this fence, and the fence he proved last (which last fence he has proved was put up by the Defendants 14 or 15 years ago) was in an open Common, Taken and subscribed this 1st day of May 1797.

Richard his X mark Morris.

Charles Carroll & Co. Lessee
vs
Edward Norwood and Samuel Norwood

The Deposition of Richard Morris aged about thirty three years deposeth and sayeth that the place he now sheweth to the Sheriff and Surveyor of Baltimore County stood a fence built by the Messrs. Norwood's about fourteen or fifteen years ago, Question by Plaintiff, How long since the fence on the third line of the cultivation No. 2 has been put up, by the Defendants, Ans. eight or nine years ago and further saith not. Taken and subscribed this first day of May 1797.

Richard his X mark Morris