William Buchanan's Lessee against William Stiles, Hannah Frizell Tenant.

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the thirtieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine Richard Smith Lessee of William Buchanan by John Purvance his attorney declared in the General Court here against William Stiles, in a plea of trespass and Ejectment, with a notice thereto annexed in manner and form following, to wit;

General Court for the Western Shore of Maryland, Baltimore County ss. William Stiles late of Baltimore County yeoman was attached to answer Richard Smith of a plea, wherefore with force and arms he entered into all that part of a Tract of Land called Carolina Felix situate and lying in Soldiers Delight in Baltimore County aforesaid which is contained within the following metes, bounds, courses and distances viz. Beginning therefor at the end of the third line of the whole tract land running thence North Twenty seven degrees East Eighty six perches to the great road and then with the said Road the four following courses, North Eighty seven degrees East thirty six perches; South seventy three degrees East eighteen perches, South Forty seven degrees East forty eight perches, South eighty three Degrees East Eighty perches to intersect the two hundred and thirty perches line of Jones's Park then bounding on said line South Twenty nine perches to the end thereof, then South seventy nine Degrees East Twenty six perches to intersect the fifth thirty nine degrees West Fifty one perches line of Carolina Felix then with said line North Thirty nine degrees west Five perches to the end thereof then South Fifteen degrees West twenty Five perches to intersect the North Seventy Five degrees West Fifty perches line of Abner's Camp, then bounding on said line North seventy five degrees West Thirty perches to the end thereof, then South Fifteen degrees West one hundred and forty five perches to intersect the South eighty eight degrees west eighty four perches line of Carolina Felix then bounding on said line South Eighty eight degrees West thirty perches and thence to the place of Beginning containing and laid out for Two hundred acres of Land more or less with the appurtenances which William Buchanan demised to the said Richard Smith for a term which is not yet expired and ought him from his said farm and other wrongs to Him did to the great damage of the said Richard and against the peace Government and dignity of the State of Maryland, and so forth. And Whereupon the same Richard by John Purvance his attorney complains that whereas the said William Buchanan on the first day of February in the year one thousand seven hundred and Ninety Nine in Baltimore County aforesaid had demised to the said Richard all that part of a tract of Land called Carolina Felix above described, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the said part of Tract of Land with the appurtenances to the said Richard and his assigns from the first day of January then last past, to the end and term of Five years from then next following, and fully to be complete and ended: By virtue of which demise, the said Richard entered into the said above described part of a Tract of Land with the appurtenances and was thereof possessed and the said Richard being so possessed thereof, the said William, afterwards, that is to say on the said first day of February, in the year last aforesaid with force and arms that is to say, with swords staves and knives entered into the said above described part of a Tract of Land called Carolina Felix with the appurtenances which the said William Buchanan,
