Judgment if the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman his Action aforesaid against him to have or maintain ought and so forth.

And the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman by his Attorney aforesaid saith that he by any thing by the said Thomas H. Hanson above in pleading alleged from having or maintaining his Action aforesaid against him ought not to be precluded because he saith, that the said Thomas H. Hanson hath not paid unto him the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman the aforesaid sum of Money in the Condition aforesaid mentioned with the Interest thereon in such manner and form as the said Thomas H Hanson above by pleading hath alleged, and of this he prays may be enquired of by the Country and the said Thomas H. Hanson in like manner and so forth; Therefore let a Jury thereon appear before the Court here, on the second Tuesday of May next, by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth, to recognize and so forth, because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the said parties, then and there and so forth.

And now, at this day, to wit, the said second Tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the same month, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, come again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman by his Attorney aforesaid as the said Thomas H. Hanson by his Attorney aforesaid, and the said Thomas H. Hanson by his Attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment aforesaid, above by him pretended says, that he cannot deny the Action aforesaid of the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman, so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman the aforesaid sum of Four hundred and ninety seven pounds Current money in manner and form aforesaid, so as aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman above against him hath declared.

Therefore, it is Considered, by the Court here, that the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman recover against the said Thomas H Hanson as well the sum of Four hundred and ninety seven pounds Current Money his Debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid confessed, as also the quantity of nine hundred and five pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto the aforesaid Henry Henley Chapman on his assent adjudged, as well for his damages sustained by reason of the detention of that Debt, as for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit, in this behalf laid out and expended, and the said Thomas H. Hanson in Mercy and so forth.

Memorandum. Judgment rendered in this Cause on the Twenty ninth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, for the penalty and Costs of Suit, and the Plaintiff agrees to release the penalty upon the payment of Principal, Interest and Costs, and agrees to stay Execution until the first day of August next. Payments if any to be allowed.
