EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, by the memorial of Jacob Staley, of Frederick County, that on the night of the fixteenth of December last, his new Barn with the following contents was set on fire and consumed, viz. In wheat and other small grain, about fourteen hundred bushels, two ton of hay—six head of valuable horses, and nine head of horned cattle—and that on the night of the twenty fifth of October last, another Barn belonging to the said Staley, with the following contents, viz. about eight hundred bushels of wheat—fifteen ton of hay, and fodder to a considerable amount, was likewise consumed by fire, and that he has reason to suspect that some malicious person or persons, wilfully set fire to the same, and whereas it is of the greatest importance to society, that the perpetrators of such crimes should be discovered and brought to justice; I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of five hundred dollars, to whoever will discover the author or perpetrators of the said offences, provided he, she, or they, or any of them be convicted thereof; and moreover, I do, by virtue of the authority and powers vested in me, hereby promise a full and free pardon to any person being an accomplice who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of the said offences, on the aforesaid condition.

Given at Annapolis under the seal of the State of Maryland, the ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

November (7) 14, 1809. 8

NOTICE.

WAS committed as a runaway, to the gaol of Frederick county, Maryland, on the 27th of September last, a dark mulatto man, who calls himself George Price—as he says about 23 years old, a pert impudent spoken fellow; his clothing when committed were as follow—an oznaburg shirt, a pair of nankeen pantaloons, an old pair of boots, a striped cotton waistcoat, an old wool hat, his back somewhat scarified with the whip, a small scar at the corner of his right eye, his foreteeth not close but good, says he belongs to Mr. THOMAS VIOLET, of Fairfax county, Virginia, about four miles from Fairfax court house. The owner is hereby requested to come and release him, otherwise he will be sold for his prison fees agreeably to law.

GEORGE CREAGER, Jun.
Sheriff Frederick county, Md.
Oct. 11 (Nov. 7) 1809. 8

Notice.

WAS committed to the goal of Frederick county, Maryland, on the 10th instant as a runaway, a negro man who calls himself HENAW, he is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, well made and very black, with large whiskers, supposed to be about 30 years of age; he has a small scar on his forehead, one on his left eye brow, and a small scar under his left eye, he likewise has a small knot on the back of the right hand, has lost the first joint of the second toe on his left foot, His clothing when committed were a mixed cotton coat, a stripped cotton waistcoat, a cotton shirt, a pair of buckskin pantaloons, a fur hat half worn and a pair of shoes. He had with him a large bay horse, saddle, bridle and saddle-bags, and says he belongs to Mr. John Ray of Bath county, Virginia, about 12 miles from the warm springs.—The owner is hereby requested to come and release said negro, otherwise he will be sold or his prison fees agreeably to law.

☞ The editors of the American at Baltimore, the Star at Easton, and National Intelligencer at Washington, are requested to publish the above 8 weeks in their respective papers and forward their accounts.

Two hundred dollars reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber, a few days since, negro Joseph Cofier—He is about five feet ten inches high, tolerably black, with rather small eyes, and a very long under lip; his feet are large, and remarkably full and round on the inner side of the instep above the hollow of the foot. He moves clumsily in his common walk, and has a loud and rather hoarse voice. The above reward will be given for delivering him to the subscriber, if taken out of the state—fifty dollars if taken out of the county—and thirty if taken in the county.

EDWARD LLOYD.

100 dollars reward.

RAN away from Dorsey's Anchor Manufactory, near Baltimore, on the 25th August, a negro man named HARRY, about 21 years of age, stoops a little in the shoulders, clumsy made, large feet, which he turns out, smooth face, slow speech, and drawls out his words; he has a scar below one of his shoulders; he pretends to be a very strict Methodist. He had on when he went away, striped gingham pantaloons, white waistcoat, brown cloth coat, and new shoes with thick soles—It is probable he will change his clothes, as he has a variety. Whoever will deliver the said negro to the subscriber, at the said manufactory, shall receive the above reward, or Fifty Dollars if confined in any jail, and notice be given, so that I receive him again.

ADAM SHIPLEY, Manager.
Sept. 12, 1809. m

150 Dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living on Bennett's Point, Queen-Ann's county, Maryland, on Saturday, the 2d instant, a negro man named Charles, but calls himself Charles Dolly, about 28 or 30 years of age, five feet 10 or 11 inches high, very black, a little pock-marked, with large mouth and teeth, stout and well made; wears large whiskers; polite when spoken to, but has not much to say—Had on a grey cloth jacket, and country linen trowsers and shirt, and took with him other clothes, not recollected. Said negro was raised on the farm near Smyrna, on the line between Queen-Ann's and Delaware, now the property of John Cummins, Esq. of that town, and lately taken home, where he has a wife, and probably may be now lurking. The above reward will be paid to any person delivering said negro to the subscriber, or securing him so that he gets him again.
