November 14 1809. 3

Public sale.

ON TUESDAY, the 5th day of December next, at Mr Benjamin Hatchelson's Tavern, in Centreville, the subscriber will offer at public sale, the remaining part of the real estate of Christopher W. Carradine, deceased, that lies near the head of Corsica Creek, in Queen-Ann's county. It is composed of a farm, a tract of land containing upwards of two hundred acres, on which there is an excellent two story brick dwelling house, within less than two miles from Centreville. The situation is high and healthy, and every way calculated for a comfortable residence. It will be sold together or in lots, as may best suit purchasers and on a credit of twelve months, the purchaser giving bond with approved security for the payment of the purchase money, with interest from the time of sale.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11.

Mr. Seth, from the Committee, delivered to the Speaker, a bill, entitled, an act to alter all such parts of the Constitution and Form of Government of this State, as relate to voters, and qualification of voters,—which was read, and ordered to have a second reading on Thursday the 16th inst.

The house proceeded to the second reading of the message relative to the appointment of a Senator; and, on motion of Mr. James Brown, the question was put that the first blank be filled up with the word "Wednesday;"—resolved in the affirmative. On motion of J. H. Thomas, the question was put that the word "ballot" be stricken out for the purpose of inserting the words "vote vive voce."—The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follows:—

YEAS.

Messrs. Hopewell, Blackistone, Grahame, Ireland, Stuart, Chapman, Gale, Cottman, Lucas, Lecompte, Griffith, Frazier, Hayward, John Thomas, Baer, J. H. Thomas, Gaither, S. Thomas, Wharton, Veatch, Bayard, Cresap, Reid. 23.

NAYS.

Messrs. Hall, Angier, Harris, W. Moffett, Belt, A. Dorsey, Williams, Sellman, Wilkinson, Harryman, M. Brown, Randall, Stevens, Kerr, P. Spencer, Seth, Groome, J. S. Moffett, Philpsick, Sands, Boyle, J. Brown, Hopper, Palmer, Prideaux, Quinton, Schley, Archer, Forwood, Davis, Streett, Holbrook, Willis, Driver, Jump, Worthington, Bland, Bowles, Cellar, Tabbs, Brent, Hilleary. 42.

So it was determined in the negative.

The question was then put that the house assent to the said message; and the yeas and nays being again required, there appeared 63 in the affirmative, and 2 in the negative!! the message was sent to the Senate.

On motion, leave was given to bring in a bill, entitled, an act to alter all such parts of the Constitution as prevent persons conscientiously scrupulous of taking an oath, from serving as jurors. Messrs. Seth, Bland and Groome, were appointed a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

On motion, leave was given to bring in a bill, entitled, an act for the encouragement of learning in this State, and for other purposes. The house proceeded to ballot for a Committee to prepare and bring in the same;—the ballots being deposited in the ballot-box, the gentlemen named to strike, retired, and after some time returned, and reported, that Messrs. William Moffett, Brent, J. Brown, Seth Prideaux, Holbrook and Schley, were elected.

The clerk of the Senate delivered a letter from the Governor, enclosing a statement of expenditures made by him in repairing the Government-house, and requesting a joint committee may be appointed to examine and report on the same; which was read.

The following message was received from the Senate.

Gentlemen,

We agree to the proposition contained in your message and resolution to the election of a Senator to represent this State in the Senate of the United States, with this exception, that we propose to make this election on the Tuesday preceding Wednesday next.

To which the House responded the following reply,

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We agree to your message of this day, proposing that Tuesday next be the day for electing a Senator to represent this State in the Senate of the United States.

Monday, November 13.

A message was sent to the Senate, informing that body that the House was ready to proceed to the choice of Governor for the State of Maryland, for the ensuing year, and that they had nominated for that office Edward Lloyd, Esq.

On motion of Mr. Brent, it was agreed, that his resolutions, disproving the famous anti-embargo resolves of last Session, and approving the late and present measures of the administration of the Government of the United States, should be made the order of the day for the 30th instant.

[We hope that this measure so eminently calculated to feel the pulse of our legislature, as well that of our political friends as our enemies, will not be allowed to "go down to the tomb of the Capulets," without a discussion.]

A message was received from the Senate in reply to that of the House, announcing that they were ready to proceed to the choice of Governor, and that they had not nominated any other person than the gentleman named by the House.

An act for the relief of Patrick Gillaspie, of Caroline county, was read and passed. [This act is predicated on a petition, which states that since his arrival in this country, and prior to his being naturalized, he honestly had possessed himself of a considerable real property, which by law, on the event of his death, would be subject to escheat, &c.]

A petition from Peter G. Robinson, of Somerset county, relative to the minor heirs of Levin Gales, &c. was read and referred.

The act for altering the names of J. W. & S. Cole, to that of J. W. & S. Caple, was read a third time and passed.

A petition from Catherine Hogmeyer, of Washington county, and from Amelia Peters, of Queen-Ann's, praying divorce from their respective husbands, were read and referred.

The members of the house then proceeded to take the qualifications prescribed by the Constitution, prior to going into the election of a Governor.

The committee, appointed by the House, to count and strike the ballots, with the committee of the Senate, Reported—

(As per last Tuesday's Star.)

It being then announced that Edward Lloyd, Esq. having a constitutional majority of votes, was duly elected Governor.

On motion, a committee of two members on the part of the House were appointed, with such committee as the Senate would appoint, jointly to wait on the Governor elect and inform him of his election, and that both houses were ready to receive him in order to qualify in the Senate room.

At half past one o'clock, Messrs. Partridge and Bowie, from the Senate, informed the house that the Governor elect was then waiting in the Senate chamber, and ready to take the qualifications prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State. The members of the house then proceeded to the Senate chamber, when the respective oaths of office were administered by the Speaker of the House, and the President of the Senate. The delegates then retired to their own room; and after the transaction of some local business, adjourned
