prays may be enquired of by the Country and the said William Harwood in like manner and so forth. Therefore let a Jury thereon appear before the Court here on the second Tuesday of May next, by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth, to recognize and so forth, because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the parties aforesaid there and there and so forth

And now at this day to wit the said second tuesday of May being the fourteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, come again into the General Court here as well the said Francis T Clements by his Attorney aforesaid. as the said William Harwood by his Attorney aforesaid, Thereupon the said William Harwood by his Attorney aforesaid relinquisheth the averment aforesaid above by him pretended and saith that he cannot deny the Action aforesaid of the said Francis T. Clements so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the said Francis T. Clements the said sum of two thousand three hundred and ten pounds eleven shillings and two pence current money in manner and form as the said Francis T Clements above against him hath declared: Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Francis T Clements recover against the said William Harwood as well the said sum of two thousand three hundred and ten pounds eleven shillings and two pence current money the Debt aforesaid in form aforesaid Confessed as the quantity seven hundred and ninety three pounds of Tobacco by the Court here adjudged unto the said Francis T. Clements on his assent as well for the Damages sustained by reason of the detention of the said Debt as for the Costs and Charges by him laid out and expended about his suit in this behalf, and the said William Harwood in Mercy &c.

Memorandum on the twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, Judgment was rendered in this Cause for the Penalty of the Bond and the Costs of Suit; To be released on the payment of the principal Interest and Costs payments if any to be allowed.
