Apollo's Fount.

FROM A LONDON PAPER.

An aged gentleman, a few days ago in a party, was observed to pay particular attention to one of the young ladies, who in the course of the evening, dropped her glove, which the gentleman picked up, and put into his pocket. The next day he sent the glove to the lady, with the following lines :—

If you from Glove do take the letter G,
The Glove is love, and that I send to thee,
JOHN PAGE.

The lady immediatly returned for answer :—

If you from Page do take the letter P,
The Page is age, and that wont do for me.

The State of Maryland, to wit :

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

FREDERICK WILLIAM BRUNE, Esquire, having produced to the Governor an Exequatur, signed by the President of the United States, and sealed with the seal of the said United States, recognizing him as Vice-Consul from his Danish Majesty for the State of Maryland, to reside at Baltimore—ORDERED, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, that the said recognition be published for the information and government of the people of this State.

GIVEN in Council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty-fourth.

EDWARD LLOYD.

By the Governor.

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

JAMES MADISON,

President of the United States of America.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—

WHEREAS it has been made to appear to me, that Frederick William Brune, Esq. has been temporarily appointed Vice-Consul of his Danish Majesty for the State of Maryland, to reside at Baltimore, I do therefore recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers and privileges, as are allowed to Vice-Consuls of such friendly powers, between whom and the United States there is no particular agreement for the regulation of the Consular functions.

IN testimony whereof I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

GIVEN under my hand at the city of Washington, the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

JAMES MADISON.

By the president.

R. SMITH, Secretary of State.

ORDERED, That the foregoing be published twice in each week, for the space of five weeks, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Easton Star, Mr. Grieves's paper at Hagar's-town, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper at Frederick-town.

150 Dollars reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living on Bennett's Point, Queen-Ann's county, Maryland, on Saturday, the 2d instant, a negro man named Charles, but calls himself Charles Dolly, about 28 or 30 years of age, five feet 10 or 11 inches high, very black, a little pock-marked, with large mouth and teeth, stout and well made; wears large whiskers; polite when spoken to, but has not much to say—Had on a grey cloth jacket, and country linen trowsers and shirt, and took with him other clothes, not recollected. Said negro was raised on the farm near Smyrna, on the line between Queen-Ann's and Delaware, now the property of John Cummins, Esq. of that town, and lately taken home, where he has a wife, and probably may be now lurking. The above reward will be paid to any person delivering said negro to the subscriber, or securing him so that he gets him again.

JOHN LLOYD TILGHMAN.

100 dollars reward.

RAN away from Dorsey's Anchor Manufactory, near Baltimore, on the 25th August, a negro man named HARRY, about 21 years of age, stoops a little in the shoulders, clumsy made, large feet, which he turns out, smooth face, slow speech, and draws out his words; he has a scar below one of his shoulders; he pretends to be a very strict Methodist. He had on when he went away, striped gingham pantaloons, white waistcoat, brown cloth coat, and new shoes with thick soles—It is probable he will change his clothes, as he has a variety. Whoever will deliver the said negro to the subscriber, at the said manufactory, shall receive the above reward, or Fifty Dollars if confined in any jail, and notice be given, so that I receive him again.

ADAM SHIPLEY, Manager.

Sept. 12, 1809. m

N. B. He was seen on Friday evening the 1st inst. in a small sloop, and it is supposed that he is gone to the Eastern Shore.

Two hundred dollars reward.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber, a few days since, negro Joseph Coffier—He is about five feet ten inches high, tolerably black, with rather small eyes, and a very long under lip; his feet are large, and remarkably full and round on the inner side of the instep above the hollow of the foot. He moves clumsily in his common walk, and has a loud and rather hoarse voice. The above reward will be given for delivering him to the subscriber, if taken out of the state—fifty dollars if taken out of the county—and thirty if taken in the county.

EDWARD LLOYD.

RUNAWAYS.

WAS committed to my custody on the 18th inst. a Negro Man, who says his name is HARRY, from 40 to 45 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has a scar in his upper lip, had on an old brown great coat and old Nankeen small clothes. Also, was committed at the same time a Negro Man, by the name of DICK, about 5 feet 11 inches high, not made full very black, about 27 or 28 years of age—the said Negroes say they are the property of Isaias Horseman, of London county, Virginia, and unless said Negroes are released from confinement, they will be sold agreeably to law, for their prison fees.
