Deposeth and saith that the said tree was shown to him by William Ridgely deceased, Father of the defendant as a bounded Tree more than Three several times, that this deponent saith that the said Ridgely showned the said bounded tree to him in the same manner that he the said Ridgely did the rest of his boundarys at the times that he this deponent went round the said Ridgelys Land with him and others, and that the said tree was the twelfth boundary as shown to him by the said Ridgely —

William his + mark Haslup

13. The Deposition of John Watts, aged sixty three years who being duly sworn, and being at the same bounded red oak Tree where John Haslups deposition was taken marked (11) deposeth and saith that the said Tree was shown to him by William Ridgely deceased, Father of the Defendant as a bounded red oak tree, that this deponent saith that the said Ridgely showed the said Tree to him in the same manner that he the said Ridgely did the rest of his boundarys at the time that he this deponent went round, the said Ridgelys land with him and others, and that the said tree was the twelfth boundary as shown to him by the said Ridgely —

John his + mark Watts

14. The Deposition of Caleb Sappington, aged thirty eight years, who, being duly sworn, (and being at the same bounded red oak tree, where John Haslups deposition was taken marked (11) deposeth and saith that the said Tree was the beginning bounded Tree of a tract of Land called Sappingtons Addition, and that he had heard that it was the beginning tree of a tract of land called Pinkstons Folly —

Caleb his D mark Sappington

all of the foregoing depositions taken on the part of the Plaintiff this 25th day of January 1798.

John Welch Sheriff

15. The Deposition of William Haslup aged sixty six years, who being duly sworn (and being in the Bantree of two bounded red oak trees, on the west side of the Huntington road, deposeth and saith that William Ridgely father of the Defendant showned the said trees to him as the last boundarys of his the said Ridgelys Land, and that the said Ridgely further told him the deponent that his given line run from the same two trees home to the first beginning, this Deponent further saith that he has been shown the said trees more than three several times, by the said Ridgely and that he has understood the said Land to be called Ridgelys Chance, since the present dispute took place, and that that the said trees was shewn him this deponent by the said Ridgely in the same manner as that of his the said Ridgelys other boundarys and that he always understood them by the neighbourhood to be the last boundarys of the said Ridgelys Land,

William his + mark Haslup

16. The Deposition of John Haslup, aged fifty two years, who being duly sworn, and being at the same place where William Haslups deposition was taken marked (15) deposeth and saith that he was shown the two bounded red oaks trees by William Ridgely deceased father of the defendant as the last boundarys of his the said Ridgelys Land or the tract of Land called Ridgelys Chance and that he had been shown the said trees by the said Ridgely more than once.

John Haslup

The two last depositions taken on the part of the defendant this 25 day of January 1798.

John Welch Sheriff &c

17. John Snowden's lessee vs John Ridgely } Ejectment in the General Court.

The Deposition of Wm Haslup aged about sixty six years after being duly sworn deposeth and sait William Ridgely the farther of the present Defendant shew this deponant the trees he now shews which is two red oaks to be the last bounderies of his land which Trees was shewed him the Deponant by the aforesaid William Ridgely four or five deferent times and this deponant further saith that it was general said by all the neighbors that the Trees mentioned afore said was the last trees of the aforesaid Ridgelys land and this Deponent further saith that the aforesaid Ridgely had often shewned this deponent all the bounderays of his lands the two said red oaks were the thirteen and last boundarys of his land and this deponent further saith that he has understood since the present dispute that the land in the present dispute is called Ridgelys Chance, this deponent saith that he was not informed by Wm Ridgely that the two red oaks was the thirteen bounderies —

William Haslup

Taken the 17 July 1798, on the part of the dependant — John Welch Shf.

18 John Snowden lessee vs John Ridgely } Ejectment in the General Court.

The Deposition of John Haslip aged about fifty one or two years after being duly sworn deposeth and saith that the two Red oakes he now shews was shewn him this Deponent by William Ridgely father of the present plaintiff several different Times and that he told him this deponent it was the last boundary of his Land and this deponent farther saith that since the present dispute he has understood that