FARMERS ATTEND!

I will sell that Valuable ESTATE Bloomingdale, my former residence, on the eas ern shore of this state:

LYING in Queen Ann's county, on the head waters of Wye river, and two miles from Queen's Town, on Chester river, from whence a regular packet makes a trip weekly to and from Baltimore, a distance of 38 to 40 miles, in 4 and 5 hours. This estate contains by estimation 1229 acres, two thirds of which is cleared and divided into six large fields and four lots, with springs of never-failing water in each field, the residue in wood and timber of excellent quality. There is 150 acres now in clover, and two fields will be nicely prepared to be laid down in wheat this fall—my usual crops of which are from 2500 to 2800 bushels, besides corn, oats, &c. a large orchard of choice northern grafted fruit, in the 4th and 5th year of bearing, and every improvement requisite for a genteel family.

The buildings on this estate has cost me upwards of $14,000, and I will dispose of it on short payments, at $20 per acre, or upon an accommodating credit at five guineas, with 20 valuable negroes, 10 of them young, hearty negro men, together with the stock of mules, horses, &c. Those who are disposed to make a speculation in the cheapest land that has ever been offered for sale on that shore for forty years past, are now invited to take a complete and thorough view of this property, which will be shewn them at any time by my son, residing thereon.

RICHARD GIBBS.

N B. Customers living near or below Easton, can send their wool to Joshua Taggu t's, Easton, from thence it can be brought and returned to Mr Taggart's in the rolls, without any expence to customers. Persons living at a distance from the Machines, would do well to join and send their wool, say, three, four or five hundred weight, which could be sent in a one horse cart bound on with cords, attended by one person, which would be but a trifling expence to each one—Wool might be sent 30 or 40 miles with very little expence. LAND FOR SALE.

JAMES WILSON, of Daniel, having lately conveyed to me as a Trustee, the lands on which he lives, for the purposes expressed in the Deed, which may be seen by having recourse to the Records of the county. This is therefore to give notice to his creditors, and to all those who may be disposed to buy the said lands; that they will be sold at Public Sale, on the premises, on Saturday, 1st September next, at 12 o'clock.

Those lands are handsomely situated on Choptank river, about a mile above Kingstown. The greater part of the arable land is very good, well adapted to all kinds of grain, and may be made extremely valuable at a moderate expence—There is a valuable marsh attached to the farm and several pieces of good meadow ground; the buildings are such as suit common farmers—Presuming that each one disposed to buy will view the lands previous to the day of sale, any further description of them is deemed unnecessary. The precise quantity of land is at present unknown, but an accurate survey will be made and a plat exhibited, designating the wood land, arable land and marsh, and shewing the quantity of each kind. We think there will be between 300 and 400 acres altogether.

About one half of the purchase money will be required on the day of sale, and the residue within such periods as shall be found to be most agreeable to those who are concerned in the sale, of which due publication will be made on the day of sale.
