faith of the original writ in this cause, towit, on the Twenty second day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, paid to the said James Amos the sum of money in the Condition of the writing obligatory aforesaid, together with all interest then thereon due, which he the said John Talbott Risteau ought to have paid, according to the form and effect of the said Condition, and which said sum of money and all interest thereon then due, he the said James Amos then and there received and accepted in full satisfaction and discharge of the said Condition, towit, at Baltimore County aforesaid; And this he the said John Talbott Risteau is ready to verify: Wherefore he prays Judgment whether the said James Amos ought to have or maintain his said action against him the said John Talbott Risteau and so forth. — And the said James Amos by his attorney aforesaid saith that he ought not to be precluded from having and maintaining his action aforesaid against the said John Talbott Risteau by reason of any thing above by the said John Talbott Risteau in pleading alleged, because he saith that the said John Talbott Risteau did not before the issuing forth of the original writ in this cause, towit, on the said Twenty second day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, pay to him the said James Amos the said sum of money in the said Condition above mentioned together with all interest then thereon due, which he the said John Talbott Risteau ought to have paid according to the form and effect of the said Condition, nor did he the said James Amos ever receive or accept from him the said John Talbott Risteau the said sum of money and all interest then thereon due in full satisfaction and discharge of the said Condition, as he the said John Talbott Risteau hath above in his said plea alleged; and this he the said James Amos prays may be enquired of by the Country. and the said John Talbott Risteau doth the same likewise. — Therefore let a Jury thereon come before the Court here, on the second tuesday of May next by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth, to recognize and so forth, because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the parties aforesaid, then and there and so forth. — And now at this day towit, the said second tuesday of May in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred, comes again into the General Court here, as well the said James Amos by his attorney aforesaid, as the said John Talbott Risteau by his attorney aforesaid: And the said John Talbott Risteau by his attorney aforesaid, relinquishing the averment aforesaid, above by him pretended, with that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said James Amos as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the said James Amos, the said sum of Two hundred and thirty four pounds, current money, in manner and form aforesaid, as the said James Amos above against him hath declared; Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said James Amos recover against the said John Talbott Risteau as well the sum of Two hundred and thirty four pounds, current money his Debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid confessed, as the sum of seven hundred and eighty nine pounds, of tobacco, by the Court here unto him the said James Amos on his amount adjudged, for his Damages which he hath sustained, as well by reason of the detention of the said Debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended: And the said John Talbott Risteau in mercy and so forth. — Memorandum, Judgment rendered in this cause on this Nineteenth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred, for the penalty of the Bond, and costs of Suit, and the Plaintiff agrees to release the penalty upon payment of the principal interest and costs, and agrees to stay Executions until the First day of August next; payments if any to be allowed. —
