of the Land that Judgment ought to have been given for the said Richards Harwood against the said William Knox, Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock therefore in that there is manifest Error, and he prays that the Judgment aforesaid for that Error, and others, being in the Record and proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled and held entirely as void, and that he the said Richard Harwood may be restored to all that he has lost by occasion of the said Judgment, and that the said William Knox, Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock may rejoin to the Errors aforesaid, and so forth: And the said William Knox, Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock by his attorney aforesaid say, there is no Error in the Record and proceedings aforesaid, or in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid, and pray likewise that the Court here may proceed to the Examination as well of the Record and proceedings aforesaid as of the Matters aforesaid by the said Richard Harwood above for Errors assigned, and that the said Judgment may be in all things affirmed, and so forth: But because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second tuesday of October next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised, and so forth: At which said second tuesday of October in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, come again into the General Court here, as well the said Richard Harwood by his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Knox, Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock by their attorney aforesaid: But because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second tuesday of May next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised, and so forth; At which said Second Tuesday of May in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine come again into the General Court here, as well the said Richard Harwood by his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Knox by his attorney aforesaid, and the said Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock do not come: whereupon the said William Knox by his attorney aforesaid, suggests to the Court here, that after the pleading of the said Plea of the said William Knox, Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock by way of Sounder by them above pleaded, and before this day; that is to say the second tuesday of May in the year aforesaid, the said Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock two of the parties Defendants in the plea aforesaid, departed this life, and whom the said William Knox hath survived, and this is not denied; Therefore let all further proceedings against the said Thomas B. Usher and James ch. Cullock cease; But because the Court here are not advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second tuesday of October next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised, and so forth: At which said second tuesday of October in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, come again into the General Court here, as well the said Richard Harwood by his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Knox by his attorney aforesaid: But because the Court here are not yet advised to give their Judgment of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before the Court here until the second tuesday of May next, to hear their Judgment of and upon the premises, because the Court now here thereof are not yet advised and so forth. And now at this day to wit, the said second tuesday of May in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred, come again into the General Court here, as well the said Richard Harwood by his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Knox by his attorney aforesaid: And the said William Knox by his attorney aforesaid, relinquishing the verification aforesaid, above pretended says, that there is Error in the Record and proceedings aforesaid and in the giving the Judgment aforesaid; Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the Judgment aforesaid, for those Errors, and others in the Record and proceedings aforesaid, be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that the said Richard Harwood be restored to all things which by reason of the Judgment aforesaid, he hath lost, and that he the said Richard Harwood go thereof without day, and so forth. It is also considered by the Court here, that the said Richard Harwood recover against the said William Knox the Sum of Seven hundred and fifty eight pounds of tobacco, adjudged unto the said Richard Harwood for his Costs and Charges by him sustained about the prosecution of the said writ of the said State of Maryland for the correcting of Errors of and upon the premises as aforesaid prosecuted, and that the said Richard Harwood have thereof Execution, and so forth. — Test.
