Henry Roberts. against The Harford County Court. } Be it remembered, that now here in this Term, towit, the second Tuesday of May being the Thirteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred, Comes into the General Court here a certain Henry Roberts in his proper person and exhibitedth to the Court here his Petition and remonstrance and Affidavit praying the writ of the State of Maryland of Mandamus to issue and so forth; which said Petition, Remonstrance and Affidavit are in form following towit. — To the Honorable the Judges of the General Court. The Petition of Henry Roberts, humbly sheweth; that your petitioner has for several years last past devoted his time in the study of the Law, and considers himself adequate to the management of business in that line. Your petitioner further sheweth, that he made application to the Judges of Harford County Court for admission to practice in said Court, and that the Judges of the said Court refused to admit your petitioner. Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honors would please to grant him the State of Maryland's writ of Mandamus, to compel the Judges of the said Court to admit your petitioner or shew cause &c. and your petitioner as in duty bound will pray.

May 16th 1800. —

To the Honorable the Judges of the General Court: Be it remembered, that whereas heretofore, towit, at August Term in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety nine at Harford County Court, Henry Roberts a citizen of this State made application to the Judges of the Court aforesaid for admission to practice as an Attorney of said Court. also at March Term Eighteen hundred the said Henry produced and delivered to the Judges of the said Court Certificates from two Attorneys of the City of Baltimore, in which was stated that the said Henry had the use of a good Law Library, and to their knowledge had for some time been assiduous in acquiring legal information, and in their opinion the said Henry was adequate to the management of the business in Law: and the said Henry saith he does possess legal knowledge to justify his admission, and that he knows of, neither does he believe that there exists any cause why he should not be admitted to practice as an Attorney of said Court: Nevertheless the said Judges refused and still do refuse to admit the said Henry to practice as an Attorney of said Court, contrary to the Laws of this State, and the right of the said Henry in that particular, wherefore the said Henry prays that the State of Maryland's writ of Mandamus may be granted him to compel the Judges of the said Court to admit the said Henry, or shew cause &c. —

Anne Arundel County sct. On the 17th day May 1800. Then personally appeared before me one of the Justices for said County Henry Roberts and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God that the above statements is just and true to the best of his knowledge. — James Mackubin — which being read and heard, and mature deliberation thereupon had, it is Considered by the Court here, that the said Henry Roberts take nothing by his Petition and Remonstrance aforesaid, and that he go thereof without day and so forth. — Test. John Irvine Clk —
