of resurvey thereon accordingly issued directed to the sheriff and surveyor of the County aforesaid by order of the Court here accordingly, Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by order of the Court here thereon is further Continued untill the said second Tuesday of May next following.

And now at this day to wit, the said second Tuesday of May being the thirteenth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid Richard Smith Lessee of the aforesaid David West by Squilla Hall, Zebulon Hollingsworth and John Thomson Mason his attornies as the said Zenas Hughes and Isaac Hughes by Philip Barton Key John Johnson and Luther Martin their attornies And the said sheriff and Surveyor of the County aforesaid to whom the said plats and certificates were delivered to be amended return the same to the Court here as amended with the following Depositions, to wit:

David West's
vs Zenas Hughes
and Isaac Hughes

Ejectment in the General Court.

Jacob Ruth aged about 65 years being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that about two years last May he carried he carried chain from this tree in running a tract of land called Contesti Mannor No. 2. and further saith that as well as he can remember he thinks this is the beginning Quest by David West. Who carried the chain with you from this tree? Answ.d Peter Williams as well as he remembers, Quest by D.o did you actually carry the Chain to run all the lines of that part of Contestible manner No. 2 at that time as you mentioned above being three years ago next May? Ans.d I Cant remember whether we run all or not but he remembered he run below his house his the said Wests. Quest by D.o Did you carry the Chain in running Contestible mannor or the Hills of Poverty at that time? Ans.d Contestible Mannor as well as he remembers Quest by D.o Did you carry chain making any other survey besides Contestible mannor at that time Ans.d Not as he remembers Quest by D.o Do you know the Course you run from this tree? Ans.d He does not remember and further saith not. Taken this 31st day March 1800.

Jacob his O mark Ruth

Testis James Amos D. Sheriff.

William Clarke Junor aged 45 years and upwards being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that to the best of his knowledge that he run from this tree two or three times for

David

David West and he thinks said West told him the first time it was a boundary of Amos and Mires's Puzzle and at other times it was a boundary of Amos and Mires's Puzzle and a boundary of Contestible Mannor No. 2. and further saith not. William Clark Junr.

Testis. James Amos D. Sheriff.

James Barton aged near 39 years being duly sworn on the Holy evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that he had been here with the surveyor Patrick Doran twice or three times and he told me the last time he run it, it was the beginning of of contestible mannor No. 2 and he further saith that he was with said Doran when he run from the boundary of Good Hope to this tree for a Corner of Amos and Mires Puzzle and further saith not. Taken this 31st of March 1800.

Testis James Amos D. Sheriff. James Barton of Jno.

David West
vs Zenas Hughes and
Isaac Hughes

Ejectment in the General Court, April yr. 1st 1800.

John St. Clair aged about 40 years being duly sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith that in June sometime in the year 1795 he came to this tree with Patrick Doran David West and some others and said Doran informed this deponant that this White Oak (which he now shews) was a boundary of Amos and Myers Puzzle and we run from this tree to find the beginning of the tract of land David West now lives on as he the deponant understood said West had proclamated said land and they were going to execute said warrant and he the said Deponant understands said land goes by the name of Jarrells Disappointment ever since and then moving to a place which he now shews and says this stump was the first boundary of the survey that is now called Jarrells Disappointment April yr. 2nd then moving to a stone in a Marsh which st. deponant now shews and saith he does believe this to be the second boundary of the aforesaid tract then moving to a place which he now shews and saith he believes this stone to be the third expression called for the moving to a Chesnut at the end of the tenth line which this deponant now shews and saith to the best of his recollection this tree was bounded when the aforesaid survey was made then moving to a bounded White Oak which this deponant now shews and saith to best of his knowledge this tree was bounded for the above survey then moving to a bounded stump at the end of the second line of Jarrells Disappointment where he was sworn and saith that such part of these fields as is to the Eastward of the second line of

Jarrells