Which Certificate is endorsed as follows: Harford County, Jesse Jarrett
Certificate and plat of Contestable manor 1332 Acres, In the reserve
For the office. rec.d 11th Febry 1789.
Caveated pr. Robert Mooberry, Wm. McLeary and Wm. Gullison
Caveated pr. Aquila Hall Esqr. Feby. 13. 1789.
By the Chancellor December 22nd 1789.
Ordered that Robert Mooberys Caveat be dismissed.
Test. Jno. Callahan Reg. Ld. off. W.S.
Mem.d A Caveat agt. Mooberyyet exists. By the Chancellor Feby 25th 1794.
Caveat dismissed.
Test Jno. Callahan Reg. Ld. Off W.S.
That the said certificate being Caveated the judge of the Land office did on the 28th day of July 1794 make an order for correcting the same in these words to wit. William McCleary not appearing agreeably to the order of the Chancellor on the 3rd Tuesday in May last, in support of his Caveat it is dismissed pursuant to the said order.
Test Jno. Callahan Reg. Ld. off W.S. July 28. 1794.
It appearing by a deposition filed that the Caveat entered in the name of William Gullison was intended for and ought to have been in the name of Thomas Gullison by order of the said Thomas Gullison the Caveat is this day withdrawn.
Test Jno. Callahan Reg. Ld. off. W.S. July 28. 1794
By the Chancellor, July 28. 1794.
Ordered that the surveyor correct the within certificate by excluding such part of the land as is contained in a tract of Land called Beautifull Plain patented to Samuel Richardson and that he return a corrected Certificate for the remaining quantity.
Test Jno. Callahan Reg. Ld. Off. W.S.
True Copy from the original with its several endorsements.
Test Jno. Callahan Reg. Ld. off. W.S.
That on the 9th February 1795. The Corrected Certificate was returned in these words to wit.
State of Maryland Ss. By virtue of an order from the honorable Chancellor from this State on the tenth day of January seventeen hundred and ninety four to Correct a certificate Called Contestible manor by excluding such part that lies in a tract called Beautifull Plain patented to Samuel Richardson and also to exclude that part of said Certificate called Contestible manor where it affects more vacancy than than lies in a Certificate called The Hills of Poverty and return a corrected Certificate for the remaining quantity, on the twenty second day of January seventeen hundred and Eighty nine Contestable manor was resurveyed for Jesse Jarrett for eighteen hundred and thirty two acres by virtue of a purchase from the intendant as appears &c.

I Daniel Scott Surveyor of Harford County hereby Certify that I resurveyed and carefully laid out for him the said Jesse Jarrett the aforesaid tract of Certificate Land called Contestable manor excluding that part which lies in the tract called Beautifull plain and also excluding that part which is not contained within the lines of The Hills of Poverty, which occasioning the remaining part of Contestable manor to be in two parcels distinguished on the plat by the letters A and B. lying and being in Harford County Beginning for the part distinguished with the letter A at a Stone South forty four degrees West forty three perches distant from a Stone in The States line said Stone in the States line being east one mile from the tent meeting house and running thence South forty four degrees West one hundred and twenty seven perches East two perches South fourteen degrees West eighty six perches South seven degrees East one hundred and eighty perches South fifty two degrees East forty eight perches South eighty degrees East seventy two perches to a bounded white oak standing on a Stony point on the South side of a Glade Called The round Meadow then north twenty two degrees east eighty perches South sixty three degrees and a half East ninety two perches, North twenty seven degrees west one hundred and sixty seven perches South seventy seven degrees East two hundred and forty eight perches North forty eight degrees East twenty five perches South seventy seven degrees and a quarter East ninety one perches north nineteen degrees East forty seven perches North forty six degrees East sixty perches South sixty degrees East twenty perches South sixty perches, South thirty degrees West fifty three perches South seventy seven degrees east sixty nine perches north forty one degrees east fifty seven perches to two bounded white Oaks standing on a narrow bank between a Glade and a branch then east by north forty six perches South East by east thirty five perches to a bounded red Oak Sapling on the west side of a branch then South eighty nine degrees East sixty perches to two bounded Chesnut Saplings one of the boundarys of a tract Called Norris Chance then running with and bounding on that Land the two following Courses Viz.
North