North seventy degrees East forty perches, South twenty six degrees East forty perches then north seventy three degrees east sixty six perches North thirty one degrees East one hundred and thirty two perches until it intersects the north sixty one degrees West line of a tract called Wild Cat Den then with said line north sixty one degrees West eight perches to the end thereof then still bounding on said land three following Courses Viz. South thirty eight degrees West one hundred and fifteen perches north eighty five degrees West two hundred perches North two hundred and twenty six perches and then with a straight line to the beginning containing one thousand three hundred and ten acres Beginning for the other part of Contestable mano which is distinguished on the plat with the letter B at a bounded red oak near the head of a hollow it being a boundary of a tract Called Smoss's and Myers Puzzle standing at the end of the South sixty three degrees and a half east one hundred and thirty eight perches line of said Land and running thence and bounding on Smoss and Myers Puzzle South twenty four degrees East one hundred and sixty seven perches South seventy seven degrees East fifty perches to a bounded White Oak on the East side and within six perches of a branch descending into the Island run then north thirty six degrees East ninety perches, North sixteen degrees West fifty five perches North thirty seven degrees West two hundred perches thirty two degrees West two hundred perches South thirty two degrees West one hundred and twenty three perches until it intersects Smoss's and Myers Puzzle aforesaid and then with a straight line to the beginning containing one hundred and seventy three acres both parts contains fourteen hundred and eighty three acres more or less by the name of Contestable manor surveyed January twenty sixth day 1795. Danl Scott S.H.C

Which Certificate is endorsed as follows.

Harford County, Jesse Jarrett's plat and Certificate of Contestible Manno 1483^a. in the reserve, For the office.

A Correct Certificate of one formerly returned.

Rec^d this 9th Feby 1795.

That on the 20th February 1795. the judge of the Land office at the instance of the said Jesse Jarrett himself made a second order for correcting the said Certificate in these words.

[The register of the land office gives information that this order does does not appear on the minutes of the land office that the order was given by the Chancellor at his house and never presented at the office]

By the Chancellor May 20th 1795.

The party having suggested that a mistake was committed in executing the former order, It is ordered that if a mistake shall appear the same be corrected by the surveyor of Harford County by making his correction agreeably to the said former order.

Test Jno Callahan Reg Ld Off W.S.

True Copy from the original Certificate with its endorsements.

Test John Callahan Reg L^d off. W.S.

That on the 18th of May 1796. another Corrected Certificate for the land called Contestable manner was returned to the land office in these words to wit. State of Maryland ss. By virtue of an order of the Chancellor in the land office dated May 20th 1795. to correct Jesse Jarrett Esqr of Harford County corrected certificate of Contestable mano and dated Jany 26. 1795. by a mistake in the same if any should appear by making the correction agreeably to a former order &c^a In the order of the Chancellor dated June 1. 1795. for correcting Abraham Jarrett Esqr Certificate of Bellgrade are the following words and also by excluding all that part thereof which lies within the tract of land Called Buchanans Deer park supposing the beginning thereof to be at the letter E on the plat for the illustration of the dispute between Abraham Jarrett and David West^n I Daniel Scott Surveyor of Harford County, hereby certify that Contestable Mano lies in two seperate tracts or parcels which I have now distinguished by N° 1 and N° 11 bounded as follows to wit lying in Harford County beginning for N° 1. at the end of thirty one perches on the first line of a tract called Buchanans Deer Park supposing the beginning of said land to be as directed by the Chancellor at a marked Chesnut and Chesnut Stump standing North eighty two degrees east thirteen perches and half a perch from a mile Stone in the pennsylvania line one mile eastward from the tent meeting house and running thence South forty three degrees west two hundred and sixty one perches South fourteen degrees East twenty nine perches South eighty six degrees East thirty nine perches north seventy four degrees East seventy three perches South sixty two degrees East sixteen perches and one quarter of a Perch to the end of nineteen perches on the north twenty two degrees