degrees East eighty perches line of a tract called Amos and Myers Puzzle the north twenty two degrees East sixty one perches South seven degrees East thirteen perches north twenty seven degrees West one hundred and thirty six perches South seventy seven degrees East three hundred and seventy one perches to the end of four perches on the fourth line of a tract called Ability, then bounding on said land the five following lines to wit, North West twenty five perches, South seventy seven degrees and one quarter of a degree East sixty five perches South nineteen degrees east forty seven perches North forty six degrees East sixty perches South sixty degrees East twenty perches South sixty perches, South thirty degrees west fifty perches then south seventy seven degrees East forty nine perches and half a perch until it intersects Ability aforesaid then north forty one degrees east sixty three perches and half a perch to two bounded white oaks standing on a bank or Island the beginning of a tract called Johns Search then running with and bounding on Johns Search the three following lines to wit. East by north forty six perches South sixty two degrees East forty five perches to a bounded red oak on the West side of a branch East eighty four perches to two bounded Chesnuts a bounder of said land also a boundary of a tract called Norris's Chance then with and bounding on Norris's Chance the two following lines to wit, North seventy degrees East forty perches South twenty six degrees East forty perches then north seventy three degrees East thirteen perches North thirty one degrees East thirty seven perches until it intersects the eighth line of a tract called Wild Cat den then with said line north eighty five degrees West one hundred and sixty seven perches to the end thereof then still bounding on said land North two hundred and forty two perches and a half perch and then with a straight line to the beginning containing twelve hundred and fifty three acres and half an acre more or less Beginning for N.W. at a bounded red oak standing on the South Eastward side and near the head of a dry hollow descending into the Island branch a boundary of a tract called Amos and Myers Puzzle and running thence South four degrees East one hundred and sixty seven perches South seventy three degrees East two perches and half a perch north thirty three degrees east one hundred and fifteen perches North thirty seven degrees West two hundred and fifty perches South thirty thirty two degrees West one hundred and eight perches until it intersects Amos and Myers Puzzle aforesaid and then with a straight line to the beginning containing one hundred and thirty eight acres and half an acre more or less And in both tracts or parcels together containing one thousand three hundred and ninety two acres more or less by the name of Contestable manor. Corrected May 2d 1796.

Dan: Scott S. H. C.

Which Certificate was endorsed as follows.

Harford County Jesse Jarrett Esq. Cert. of Contestable manor 1392a.
For the office
May 17th 1796. Examined and passed.
Rachel Stevens Exam Genl.

A Corrected Certificate of one before returned. Recd 13 May 1796.

That on the 13th July 1796. the above named David West Caveated the said last mentioned Certificate and filed his Caveat in these words.

Caveated p David West the 13th July 1796.

That on the 20th September 1796 the judge of the Land office again made an order for correcting the said Jarretts Certificate which order is in these words to wit: Sept. 20: 1796: The Chancellor proceeded to a hearing of the Caveat against this Certificate in the Course of which David Wests Certificate of Jarretts disappointment was proceeded The said Certificate is endorsed with an order directing it to be corrected by excluding such part as lies according to the plat for illustration in the cause and the re corrected Certificate of Contestable manor within the lines of said Contestable manor. On the hearing of the Caveat of Jarretts disappointment it was not suggested that this Certificate which is the recorrected Certificate aforesaid was erronious and the present Caveat amounts in fact to an application for a reconsideration of the Caveat against Jarretts disappointment For according to the practice of this office and agreeable to the principles of Common Sense whenever the same land is contained in the Certificates of both parties to a Caveat it is considered that each of the parties has Caveated his Antagonist on this Ground then the Certificate of the recorrected Certificate of Contestable manor is to be considered as having been caveated by David West as well as Jarretts Disappointment, was Caveated by Jesse Jarrett, It does not appear however on the examination of the re corrected Certificate of Contestable Manor that the surveyor has strictly pursued the directions of the

Chancellors