stand on the Upper side of Barron point Cove above Mathes's House and it ought to run a cross the to Sandy Bottom where Peckered hung himself. But Franklin had established it on the barron side and further saith not; Taken on the Survey 29th of April 1800. Jeremiah Biddison

Whereupon the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid, pray leave of the Court here to complete the survey under the old warrant of Resurvey issued in this cause, by the second tuesday of October next, and to them it is granted; And the Jurors of the Jury whereof mention is above made not being called do not come; Therefore as before let a Jury thereon come before the Court here, on the said second tuesday of October next, by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth, to recognize and so forth because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the parties aforesaid then and there and so forth. — At which said second tuesday of October in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred, come again into the General Court here as well the said Thomas Goodtitle lessee of the said Walter Riddle Dallas by his attorneys aforesaid, as the said Daniel Stansbury by his attorney aforesaid: And the Sheriff and surveyor of the County aforesaid, to whom the said warrant of Resurvey was in form aforesaid directed, make return thereof to the Court here, with Twi plots and Certificates thereto annexed, with the Depositions in form following to wit. — The Deposition of Jeremiah Biddison aged about Forty years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith, that the place now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor he the said Deponent has often been shewn and always understood to be the beginning of Hopewell, and this Drean now shewn leads into Indian Fort then empties into Deep Creek, and further saith not: Taken on the survey the 19th day of August 1800. — — — — Jeremiah Biddison. —

The Deposition of Nicholas Brian aged about thirty eight years being first duly summoned and sworn deposeth and saith, that to the best of his recollection Mr Abraham Speer told him this deponent and the rest in company being on a resurvey and putting his hand on the tree now shewn to the Sheriff and surveyor said this is the beginning tree of Shaws Fancy shewn to him by old George Harryman, and further this Deponent saith not; Taken on the survey the 19th day of August 1800. Nicholas Brian.

The Deposition of Isaac Wigby aged about Forty four years, being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith about sixteen or seventeen years past that he this Deponent being in Company with old Christopher Dukes going down the neck was shewn the tree of which this is the stump to be the beginning tree of old Hope well as now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor, and further this Deponent saith that said Dukes told him this Deponent that this boundary stand on Indian fort branch, and further this Deponent saith not; Taken on the survey the 19th day of August 1800. Isaac Wigby.

The Deposition of William Ingal aged upwards of Forty years being first duly summoned and sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God deposeth and saith, that he knew this Branch now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor upwards of Thirty years and that said Branch was then called Indian Fort Branch and that said Branch empted into Deep Creek and further this Deponent saith this Branch in particular bore the name of the main branch leading into Indian Fort and Deep Creek. Taken on the survey the 19th day of August 1800. William his X mark Ingal.

The Deposition of John Ingal aged about Forty two years being first duly summoned and sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith, that the tree now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor was shewn to him by his Father to be a boundary standing on the line dividing between Walter Dallas and old George Harryman, and further this Deponent saith not; Taken on the survey on the 19th day of August 1800. — — — — John his X mark Ingal. —

The Deposition of Samuel Smith, aged sixty years being first sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith that the place now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor between the two points of Fort land he at this time believes to be the mouth of Middle Creek, and further saith not; Taken on the survey on the 12th day of September 1800. — — — — Samuel his X mark Smith. —

The Deposition of Samuel Smith aged sixty years being first duly summoned and sworn, deposeth and saith, that about Thirty one years ago he this Deponent being present at the place now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor, he this Deponent was in company with Christopher Dukes, Jarvis Biddison and Edmond Stansbury, and to the best of his knowledge saw the above Gentlemen qualified to the place now shewn to be the beginning of Dixons Neck, and further this Deponent saith four years ago he was sworn and shows Galloway and Christian Davis to this place to be the beginning of Dixons Neck; Taken on the survey on the 12th day of September 1800. — — Samuel his X mark Smith. —

The Deposition of John Ingal aged about Forty three years being first duly summoned and sworn deposeth and saith, that the place now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor was shewn to him this Deponent by Thomas Egliston to be the place or near the place where Samuel Peckered hung himself, and the place so shewn is on the west side of the old road leading down Back Diver Neck, and further this Deponent saith to the best of his recollection it was thirty two or thirty three years ago, and further this Deponent saith not; Taken on the survey the 13th day of September 1800. — — — John his X mark Ingal. —