William Gibson, John Ballard, Henry Ballard, William Ballard, Edward Ballard, William Johnson and Jonathan Plowman's Lessee.

against

John Doe, The Casual Ejector.

Rebecca Bermingham, Tenant in possession.

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the Fourth day of April in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and one; Richard Roe lessee of William Gibson, John Ballard Henry Ballard, William Ballard, Edward Ballard, William Johnson and Jonathan Plowman by John Purviance their attorney, declared in the General Court here against John Doe, in a plea of Trespass and Ejectment, with a notice thereto annexed, in form following to wit. Western Shore of Maryland, General Court, Harford County ss. John Doe late of Harford County yeoman was attached to answer unto Richard Roe in a plea wherefore with force and arms and so forth, he entered into twelve undivided twenty fourth parts the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in all that tract a parcel of land and premises and lying and being in Harford County aforesaid, which said tract of land is part of a parcel of land called My Lady's Mano lying in the County aforesaid, which piece a parcel of ground and premises is known and distinguished on a platt of the whole tract by the number Twenty seven. Beginning for the same at a bounded white oak standing on the point of a Hill on the North side of the Little Falls of Gunpowder River, and running thence north fifteen degrees east eighty perches, north seventy five degrees east eighty nine perches, south forty six degrees east one hundred and twenty three perches to a bounded Gum standing by the side of a Glade, thence south forty six perches and thence by a straight line to the beginning containing One hundred and four acres and one quarter of an acre, which William Gibson demised to the said Richard Roe for a Term which is not yet expired and ejected him from his said Farm: And also wherefore with force and arms and so forth, the said John Doe entered into one other undivided twenty fourth part, the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the aforesaid tract of land with the appurtenances situate in the County aforesaid, which John Ballard demised to the said Richard Roe for a term which is not yet expired and ejected the said Richard Roe from his said last mentioned farm, and also wherefore with force and arms and so forth the said John Doe entered into one other undivided twenty fourth part the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the aforesaid tract of land with the appurtenances situate in the County aforesaid which Henry Ballard demised to the said Richard Roe for a Term which is not yet expired, and ejected the said Richard Roe from his said last mentioned Farm: and also wherefore with force and arms and so forth the said John Doe entered into one other undivided twenty fourth part the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the aforesaid tract of land with the appurtenances situate in the County aforesaid which William Ballard demised to the said Richard Roe for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected the said Richard Roe from his said last mentioned Farm: and also wherefore with force and arms and so forth, the said John Doe entered into one other undivided twenty fourth part, the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the aforesaid tract of land with the appurtenances situate in the County aforesaid which Edward Ballard demised to the said Richard Roe for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected the said Richard Roe from his said last mentioned Farm: And also wherefore with force and arms and so forth the said John Doe entered into four other undivided twenty fourth parts the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the aforesaid tract of land with the appurtenances situate in the County aforesaid which William Johnson demised to the said Richard Roe for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected the said Richard Roe from his said last mentioned Farm: And also wherefore with force and arms and so forth, the said John Doe entered into four other undivided twenty fourth parts the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the aforesaid tract of land with the appurtenances situate in the County aforesaid which Jonathan Plowman demised to the said Richard Roe for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected the said Richard Roe from his said last mentioned Farm: and other wrongs to the said Richard Roe then and there did to the great damage of the said Richard Roe and against the peace Government and dignity of the State of Maryland and so forth. And thereupon the said Richard Roe by John Purviance his attorney complains that the said William Gibson heretofore to wit on the First day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and one at Harford County aforesaid had demised to the said Richard Roe, the said undivided twelve twenty fourth parts, the whole into twenty four equal parts to be divided of and in the tract of land First above mentioned with the appurtenances
