Baltimore County fs. On this fifth day of October 1799 came George Repold before me the Subscriber one of the Justices of the Peace for said County and made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God that the above account is just and true and that he hath not directly or indirectly received any part, parcel, security or satisfaction for the same more than the Credit given, Owen Dorsey.

Nevertheless the said James Cook by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment aforesaid above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid George Repold so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that the said George Repold hath sustained damage to the sum of six hundred pounds current money of Maryland by occasion of the non performance of the premise and assumption aforesaid in manner and form as the aforesaid George Repold above against him hath declared. Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said George Repold recover against the said Thomas Cook as well the sum of six hundred pounds current money of Maryland his damages in form aforesaid confessed as also the quantity of seven hundred and ninety seven pounds of tobacco, by the Court here unto him on his agent adjudged for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended, and the said Thomas Cooke in mercy and so forth.

Memorandum Judgment rendered in this cause on the fourteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, for the damages laid in the Declaration and costs of suit "To be released on payment of two hundred & twenty pounds fourteen shillings and seven pence half penny current money with Interest from the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight and costs and the plaintiff agrees to stay execution until the first day of August next.
