any thing by the said James Bowie Brooks above in pleading alledged from having or maintaining his action aforesaid against him ought not to be precluded because he saith that the said James Bowie Brooks hath not paid unto him the aforesaid Walter Brooks the aforesaid sum of money in the bill obligatory aforesaid mentioned with the Interest thereon in such manner and form as the said James Bowie Brooks above by pleading hath alledged and this he prays may be enquired of by the country, and the said James Bowie Brooks in like manner and so forth.

Therefore let a Jury thereon appear before the court here on the second ... Tuesday of May next by whom and so forth, and who neither and so forth to recognize and so forth. because as well and so forth, the same day is given to the said parties then and there and so forth.

And now at this day to wit the said second tuesday of May being the twelfth day of the same month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, comes again into the General Court here as well the aforesaid Walter Brooks by his attornies aforesaid as the said James Bowie Brooks by his attorney aforesaid. Nevertheless the said James Bowie Brooks by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the averment aforesaid above by him pretended says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aft. Walter Brooks so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that he owes to the aforesaid Walter Brooks the aforesaid sum of seventy five pounds ten shillings and ten pence current money in such manner and form as the aforesaid Walter Brooks above against him hath declared nor but that the aforesaid Walter Brooks hath sustained damages by reason of the detention of the debt aforesaid to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds current money in like manner and form as the said Walter Brooks within against him hath complained, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended and so forth. And hereupon the aforesaid Walter Brooks by his attornies aforesaid, prays Judgment for his debt aforesaid so as aforesaid confessed, together with his damages so as aforesaid acknowledged as also his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended to him to be adjudged and so forth.

Therefore it is considered by the court here that the aforesaid Walter Brooks recover against the said James Bowie Brooks as well, the sum of Seventy five pounds ten shillings and ten pence current money his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed, as also the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, current money his damages aforesaid, acknowledged to be sustained by reason of the detention of that debt, as also the quantity of one thousand and fifty two pounds of tobacco by the court here unto the aforesaid Walter Brooks on his agent adjudged for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended and the said James Bowie Brooks in Mercy and so forth.

Memorandum Judgment rendered in this cause on the fourteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, for seventy five pounds ten shillings and ten pence current money debt, and one hundred and fifty pounds current money damages and costs: Damages to be released on payment of Interest on the said sum of seventy five pounds ten shillings and ten pence current money the said debt from the twenty fifth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety six and costs.
