Henry Johnson against William Goodwin	Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the fourteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred the said Henry Johnson by Nicholas Brice his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here the writ of the State of Maryland of capias ad respondendum directed to the Sheriff of Baltimore county in the words and of the tenor following to wit. The State of Maryland &c. To the Sheriff of Baltimore County Greeting. You are hereby commanded to take William Goodwin late of Baltimore county Gentleman if he shall be found in your Bailiwick and him safe keep so that you have his body before the General Court to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second tuesday of May next to answer unto Henry Johnson of a plea of trespass on the case and so forth. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase Esquire Chief Judge of the said Court the 8th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine. Issued the fourteenth day of February 1800. (N.B.) Jno. Gwinn clk. And the aforesaid Henry Johnson by his attorney aforesaid, on the day of prosecuting and suing forth of the aforesaid writ declared against the said William Goodwin in the plea aforesaid in form following to wit. Western Shore State of Maryland Baltimore county &c. William Goodwin

Goodwin late of Baltimore county Gentleman was attached to answer unto Henry Johnson of a plea of trespass on the case &c. And whereupon the said Henry who is a minor and under the age of twenty one years to wit about thirteen years old by his next friend complains that whereas the said William on the sixteenth day of July in the year seventeen hundred and ninety three at Baltimore county aforesaid was indebted to the said Henry in the sum of one thousand Dollars current money of the United States of America for money by the said William before that time had and received to the use of the said Henry. And being so indebted he the said William in consideration thereof afterwards to wit on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid undertook and faithfully promised the said Henry to pay him the said last mentioned sum of money when he the said William should be thereto required. And whereas the said William afterwards to wit on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid accounted together with the said Henry of and concerning divers other sums of money, before that time due and owing from the said William to the said Henry and then being in arrear and unpaid and upon that account he the said William was then and there found in arrear to the said Henry in another large sum of money to wit the sum of one thousand dollars of like money, and being so found in arrear to the said Henry he the said William in consideration thereof afterwards to wit on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid undertook and faithfully promised to pay him the said Henry the said last mentioned sum of money when he the said William should be thereto afterwards required. And the said Thomas avers that the said several sums of money aforesaid were at the time of the several promises and undertakings aforesaid, and now are respectively of the value of three hundred and seventy five pounds current money of Maryland of which the said William had notice to wit at the county aforesaid, Yet the said William not regarding his several promises and undertakings aforesaid but minding to defraud the said Henry in this behalf hath not paid the said several sums of money or any part thereof or of the value thereof to the said Henry (altho the said William hath been often thereto requested) but he to do this hath hitherto wholly refused and still doth refuse so to do, to the said Henry His damages in the sum of eight hundred pounds current money of Maryland wherefore he brings suit &c.
