by Thomas Hall his attorney complains that whereas the said Lemuel, William and Samuel on the thirteenth day of November in the year seventeen hundred and ninety five to wit at the county aforesaid were indebted unto the said William the sum of seventy two pounds two shillings and eleven pence current money of Maryland for divers goods wares and merchandizes particularly specified in the account herewith exhibited by the said William before that time sold and delivered to the said Lemuel, William and Samuel and at their special instance and request, and being so indebted they the said Lemuel, William and Samuel in consideration thereof afterwards to wit on the same day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid, undertook and faithfully promised the said William to pay him the said sum of money when they the said Lemuel, William and Samuel should be thereunto afterwards requested And whereas afterwards to wit on the day and year aforesaid at the county aforesaid in consideration that the said William Copeland Gouldsmith at the like special instance and request of the said Lemuel, William and Samuel had before that time sold and delivered to the said Lemuel, William and Samuel divers other goods wares and merchandizes they the said Lemuel, William and Samuel then and there undertook and faithfully promised the said William to pay him so much money as he therefore reasonably deserved to have for the same when they the said Lemuel, William and Samuel should be thereto afterwards requested: and the said William doth aver that he reasonably deserved to have of the said Lemuel, William and Samuel for the same other seventy two pounds two shillings and eleven pence current money of Maryland to wit at the county aforesaid, whereof the said Lemuel, William and Samuel afterwards to wit on the day and year aforesaid there had notice. Nevertheless the said Lemuel, William and Samuel not regarding their said promises and undertakings but contriving and fraudulently intending craftily and subtilly to deceive & defraud the said William have not as yet paid the aforesaid several sum of money or any part thereof to the said William, altho so to do the said Lemuel, William and Samuel were requested by the said William afterwards to wit on the day and year aforesaid and often afterwards to wit at the county aforesaid but to do this the said Lemuel, William and Samuel hitherto altogether refused and do still refuse so to do to the damage of the said William one hundred pounds like current money and thereof he brings suit &c. which aforesaid account so as aforesaid into court brought is in the words and figures following to wit
