Ll. Cornelius Howard's Lessee
vs
John Cromwell

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the twenty third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, Thomas Goodright Lessee of Cornelius Howard by Luther Martin his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here of and upon a Judgment in the said Court rendered the Writ of the State of Maryland of Habere facias possessionem to the Sheriff of Baltimore County directed in the words and of the tenor following, to wit:

Maryland Sc. The state of Maryland To the Sheriff of Baltimore County Greeting. Whereas at a General Court, begun and held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one a certain Thomas Goodright lessee of Cornelius Howard by Judgment of the same Court, recovered against John Cromwell late of Baltimore County yeoman his term yet to come and unexpired of and in all that part of Water oak Ridge as located by the said Thomas Goodright lessee as aforesaid upon the plats returned to the said Court in the said cause one of which said plats is hereunto annexed, and which is not included in the location of addition to Simkin's repose by the said John Cromwell made upon the said plat, with the appurtenances, situate and lying in Baltimore County aforesaid which the said Cornelius Howard on the twenty second day of June in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety three demised to the said Thomas Goodright for a term of years which is not yet expired, to hold from the said twenty second day of June in the said year until the full end and term of ten years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, whereof the said John Cromwell is convict as appears of record: Therefore you are hereby commanded, that without delay you cause the said Thomas Goodright lessee of the said Cornelius Howard to have his possession of his term aforesaid yet to come and unexpired of and in the land and premises aforesaid, with the appurtenances; and in what manner you shall execute this writ make appear to the Judges of the General Court to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of october next. Hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honorable Jeremiah Townley Chase Esquire Chief Judge of the said Court the twelfth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one.

Issued the 23rd June 1801. Ll. Jn. Lynn Clk.

And now at this day to wit, the said second tuesday of October, being the thirteenth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, and the return day of the foregoing writ, comes into the General Court here the said Thomas Goodright lessee of the said Cornelius Howard, by Luther Martin his attorney aforesaid, and the Sheriff of Baltimore County aforesaid, to wit, James Wilson, Gentleman, to whom the said Writ was in form aforesaid directed makes return thereof to the Court here, thereon endorsed, to wit "Possession delivered to Cornelius Howard the 7th July 1801 in the presence of Thomas C Walker, Peter Beam, Elijah Miller, John Wright and William Jordan

James Wilson Shff"

Test. John Lynn, Clk.

Ex.

L.M. Cornelius Howards' Lessee
vs
Henry Holdfast (Cartical Cyder)
John Cromwell, Tenant

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the twenty third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, Thomas Goodright Lessee of Cornelius Howard by Luther Martin his attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court here of and upon a Judgment in the said Court rendered the writ of the state of Maryland of Habere facias possessionem to the Sheriff of Baltimore County directed in the words and of the tenor following, to wit; Maryland Sc. The state of Maryland To the Sheriff of Baltimore County, Greeting. Whereas at a General Court, begun and held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one a certain Thomas Goodright Lessee of Cornelius Howard by Judgment of the same Court, recovered against Henry Holdfast late of Baltimore County, yeoman, his term yet to come and unexpired of and into the following tracts or parts of tracts or parcels of Land for which no defence hath been taken by John Cromwell on the plats returned to the Court here in the said cause, one of which said plats is hereunto annexed, to wit, Howards Inheritance or resurveyed Walch Oak Ridge and Rosland with the appurtenances thereunto belonging situate in Baltimore County which the said Cornelius Howard on the twenty second day of June in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and ninety three demised to the said Thomas Goodright for a term of years which is not yet expired, to hold from the said twenty second day of June in the said year until the full end and term of ten years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, whereof the said Henry Holdfast is convict, as appears of record: Therefore you are hereby commanded, that