Bottom his meadows below would be of no service to him, and this deponent further saith not. — Thomas Macgill, Sheriff.
Jadock Duvall aged and sworn as aforesaid declares to the best of his knowledge the fence in the year seventeen hundred and eighty two or Eighty three, run from A. to B. to be described on a plot and that the said fence was moved about that time, and this deponent further saith not. — — Thomas Macgill, Sheriff. —
Jacob Duvall of John aged about fifty one years being first sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God declares, about forty years ago at a place to be described on a plot he recollected the fence standing near the foot of a Hill and that he always understood it to be Ruth Duvalls fence and does not recollect that the priest had any ground cleared to the East of this fence and this Deponent further saith not. - Thomas Macgill, Shff
At another place to be described on a plot, Jadock Duvall aged and sworn as aforesaid declares that he remembers the fence running near or hereabouts which was in the year Seventeen hundred and Eighty two or Eighty three and that he was told by Enos Duvall that he cleared the land and that he always understood it his Grandmothers fence and has been frequently told by Josias Fergusson who lived with this deponents Grandmother twenty odd years ago that no priest ever had any thing to do with the fence running down the marsh from the beginning tree of the plain and this deponent does not recollect that any priest had any thing to do with this fence until it was moved, and this deponent further saith not. — Thomas Macgill, Sheriff. —
Jacob Duvall of John aged and sworn as aforesaid declare at another place to be described on a plot and saith about thirty odd years ago that he remembers the fence running along here and that he remembers it come in a winding manner under the hill to this place so as to include the cleared land and that he always understood it to be Ruth Duvalls fence and never knew nor never heard that any priest had any thing to do with this fence and this deponent further saith that his Father shewed him this deponent where the line of the plain run near this place to be described as aforesaid, and this deponent further saith that he does not recollect at that time that the land was enclosed below this place at that time, but believes it was not and this deponent further saith that the fence run as is to be described on a plot to the West, and this deponent further saith not. - Thomas Macgill, Shff. —
Jadock Duvall aged and sworn as aforesaid declares to the best of his knowledge the fence in the year seventeen hundred and Eighty two or eighty three run from the place he last proved to be described in a plot to this place to be described on a plot and saith that he is not certain it run directly straight and this deponent further saith not. — Thomas Macgill, Shff. — Jacob Duvall of John aged and sworn as aforesaid declares and saith, that there was a fence between the place proved where Ruth Duvalls fence stood but does not know whose fence it was, and this deponent further saith not. — Thomas Macgill, Shff.

Jacob Duvall of John aged and sworn as aforesaid, being asked by John Ashton if he knew where a fence stood in the rich bottom saith he has seen a fence stand under the hill about fifteen years ago but does not know whose fence it was being further asked by Mr. Ashton if he knew who cultivated the land in the rich bottom to the Eastward of the fence since he knew the fence standing under the Hill answers he does not know and this deponent further saith not. - Thomas Macgill, Shff.
At a white oak and stone the North East Course of Howertons Range,
Jacob Duvall of John aged and sworn as aforesaid declareth and saith that his father shewed him this tree and told him it was the North East Corner of Howertons Range and this deponent further saith that on a Commission in the year Eighteen hundred, taken out by Moreen Duvall to mark and bound a tract of land called Plaine, heard Ephraim Duvall prove that this the aforesaid tree was the same tree and place that was proved in the year seventeen hundred and sixty two on a Commission, taken out by Howard Duvall to prove the Boundries of the plain by him the said Ephraim Duvall, Alexander Duvall, Cornelius Duvall, Samuel Duvall and Benjamin White, and further saith not. — — — Thomas Macgill, Shff. —
Jacob Denoon aged about fifty six years being first sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God declares that he see old James Beck run the line of Howertons Range to this said white oak as the last boundres of Howertons Range and that his mother and his brother William shewed him the said White oak as the last tree of Howertons Range and saith his mother charged Benjamin White not to meddle with the said tree for it was the last tree of Howerton and this deponent further saith not. — — — Thomas Macgill, Shff. —
February 25th 1801. Jacob Duvall of John aged and sworn as aforesaid at two stones the North West Corner of Howertons Range declareth and saith I have always understood it to be the North West Corner of Howertons Range and we it proved by my Brother Marsh as the North west Corner of Howertons Range and this deponent further saith not. — — — Thomas Macgill, Sheriff
Jacob Duvall aged and sworn as aforesaid declareth and saith,