the broad rock towards Mr. Slees.

How far did the fence run from the broad rock toward Mr. Slees in the direction shewn by Burril? he answers as far as the Mulberry tree which he supposes to be about three hundred yards.

Did the fence of Mr. Tolley in the year 1774. run along the places shewn by you from this white oak? he answers it did; he further saith not.

Taken on the survey for Defendant this 6th day of Septr. 1800. } Signed Derrumple Ashew.

James Gittings Survr. Lessee
a
Aquila Hall.

The deposition of Richard Hendon aged sixty nine years or thereabouts being sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, in presence of both parties the cause, the sheriff and surveyor, Deposeth and saith That about Fifty years ago Thomas Gittings Senr. had a quarter house on the place now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor and after his death his son Thomas Gittings rented it out; and further saith that about forty years ago. he the aforesaid Thomas Gittings Senr. had a corn house on the place now shewn by this deponant to the sheriff and surveyor, and that a man the name of Henming, lived in aforesaid quarter house and he this deponant supposed he rented it; he further saith not.

Taken on the survey for Plaintiff this 8th day of September 1800. } Richard his + mark Hendon

James Gittings Survr. Lessee
a
Aquila Hall.

The deposition of Philip Chamberlain aged about fifty three, being duly sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, in presence of both parties in the cause the sheriff and surveyor, deposeth and saith, that about forty four or forty five years ago there stood a corn house and a dwelling house on the places now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor, the above mentioned houses were the property of Thomas Gittings the Elder and that the negroes of Thomas Gittings the elder lived in the aforesaid dwelling house and after his death his son rented it out; he further saith not.

Taken on the survey 8th day of September 1800 for plaintiff. } Philip Chamberlain.

James

James Gittings Survr. Lessee
a
Aquila Hall

The deposition of James Gittings of Thomas, being duly sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, in the presence of the sheriff and surveyor, and both parties in the cause, Deposeth and saith, That about seventeen or eighteen years ago, this stone was hall'd here by Capt. Tolleys orders, and to be set up as a boundary of his Land and he this deponant has seen it ever since as he was passing by from time to time, and now shews to the sheriff and surveyor he further saith that he this deponant met Capt. Tolley and the Commissioners at the second tree of the Manor the same Evening, and the stump of said tree was shewn by some one of the Company may be Thomas Nicholas, but he is not sure it was him; he further saith not.

Taken on the survey, this 8th September 1801. for Plaintiff } James Gittings of T.

James Gittings Survr. Lessee
a
Aquila Hall

The deposition of James Gittings of Thomas aged forty six years or thereabouts being sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God, deposeth and saith that about seventeen or eighteen years ago Captain Tolley had a Commission on his Lands he this Deponant came to the place now shewn to the sheriff and surveyor and when he came to said place there was Moses Galloway Thomas Hayward and to the best of this deponants recollection Clement Green as Commissioners; he this deponent met Captain Tolley and spoke to him at the aforesaid place and ask'd him what they were about? he answered that he was getting old and did not expect to live much longer, and that he would wish to settle the boundary of his land before he would depart this life, and that he meant to hall stones round his place and plant them as I mean to plant this, which this deponant now shews to the sheriff and surveyor; he further says that he believes the whole was dug and the stone laying by it ready to set in the ground; he further sayeth that the next time he passed by, which was a few days afterward the Stone was standing up, as he now shews to the sheriff and surveyor; he further saith not.

Taken on the survey for Plaintiff this 8th day of Septr. 1800. } James Gittings of T.

James