Aquila Hall.

Articles of Agreement made and concluded on this twenty sixth day of July in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and eighty two between Walter Tolley of Baltimore County and State of Maryland of the one part Gentleman and James Bosley of the County and state aforesaid of the other part Gentleman; Whereas the said Walter and James being desireous to settle the bounds and lines which divides Hills Forrest from Cullins addition and Cullins Lott the lines of which are rendered uncertain by reason of the variation of the Compass and continually fluctuating: now these present articles of agreement witnesseth that that for and in consideration of settling amity and Friendship between the said James and Walter their heirs and Assigns and for the purpose of preventing any law suits or disputes about the same in furture they have hereby agreed for themselves their heirs Executors adm.rs and assigns to and with each other by these presents that in case the said Walter Tolley should get the line of his tracts of land called Cullins Lott and Cullins Addition established so as to run as the line of my Lords Manor now run so as to include all the land between the present line of Cullins Lott and Cullins Addition as it now runs by the compass and the manor line as now proved which is supposed to be occasioned by the Compass varying, then and in such case the said Walter Tolley agrees to release and convey unto the said James his heirs and assigns all his right title Interest claim and demand of and into all that land which is included within the lines of Cullins Addition which lies to the north and South East of a line beginning at a Cherry Tree marked with three Notches standing near the methodist meeting house and running thence to a broad rock Stone this day fixed by the parties, thence to a locust Bush marked with six notches by the parties; provided it leaves a drain or small run altogether within the line of the said James Bosley but if it does not then to run to a locust bush marked with eight notches and then from the bush which should happen to be the one run to a course to a little Walnut Bush standing by

by a fence made between the said James and Walter Tolley Junr. which was set on the line between the said James and Walter as a division between Culling addition and Hills Forrest and thence to the end of the said line as the fence now runs: And the said James for himself his heirs and assigns agrees to release and Convey all his right title Interest claim and demand to all the land lying to the north west and north East of the above discribed lines next adjoining the plantation of the said Walter Tolley to him the said Walter Tolley his heirs and assigns: But in case the said Walter Tolley cannot fix the lines of his tracts of land back to the manor then this agreement to be void and of no effect; but the same can be done then the said Walter and James do agree for themselves their heirs and Assigns, to release and Convey to each other their heirs and assigns as above discribed; and the said James doth hereby agree to and with the said Walter his heirs and assigns to warrant and defend the said conveyed and released premises from a certain Benjamin Ogle and Henrietta his wife and from all claiming by from or under them or any of them or either of them and from him the said James Bosley his Heirs or Assigns or any person claiming or to claim by, thro, from or under him, them or any of them. In witness whereof the parties to these presents hath set their hands and affixed their seals the day and year above written.
