Richard Tilghman the 4th for the use of Nicholas Brice against Jench Ringgold

Be it remembered, that heretofore to wit, on the twenty fifth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred the said Richard Tilghman the 4th by Nicholas Brice his Attorney prosecuted and sued forth out of the General Court the writ of the State of Maryland of Capias ad respondendum, directed to the sheriff of Washington County in the words following to wit.

Maryland ss. The State of Maryland, To the sheriff of Washington County Greeting. you are here by Commanded to take Jench Ringgold late of Washington County Gentleman otherwise called Jench Ringgold of Montgomery County if he shall be found in your bailiwick and him safe keep so that you have his body before the General Court to be held at the

the City of Annapolis on the second tuesday of October next to answer unto Richard Tilghman 4th in a plea that he render unto him the full and just sum of twelve hundred pounds Current money which to him the said Jench owes and unjustly detains and soforth, hereof fail not at your peril and have you then and there this writ. Witness the honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase Esquire Chief Judge of the said Court, the thirteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred.

Issued the 25th day of June 1800. N. B. Jno. Gwinn Clk.

And the aforesaid Richard Tilghman 4th by his Attorney aforesaid, on the day of prosecuting and suing forth the said writ declared in the said Court against the said Jench Ringgold in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit.

Western shore State of Maryland, Washington County ss. Jench Ringgold late of Washington County Gentleman otherwise called Jench Ringgold of Montgomery County was summoned to answer unto Richard Tilghman 4th in a plea that he render unto him the full and just sum of twelve hundred pounds Current money which to him the said Jench owes and unjustly detains and so forth, And whereupon the said Richard by Nicholas Brice his Attorney saith that whereas the aforesaid Jench on the twenty second day of October in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight at Washington County aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto him the aforesaid Richard in the aforesaid full and just sum of twelve hundred pounds Current money to be paid to him the said Richard when afterwards he should be thereunto required. Nevertheless the aforesaid Jench (although often thereunto required) the aforesaid sum of twelve hundred pounds Current money to him the said Richard hath not as yet rendered or paid but the same sum of twelve hundred pounds to him the said Richard hitherto to render or pay he hath altogether refused, and still doth refuse; wherefore the said Richard saith that he is the worse and hath Damage to the value of two thousand pounds Current money and therefore he brings suit and so forth and brings here into Court the writing obligatory aforesaid sealed with the seal of the aforesaid Jench which the aforesaid, in form aforesaid witnesseth the the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid and soforth.
