Seal of the Lands Off.ce to the Lands office of Maryland. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal

John Callahan Reg.r Lands Off.ce

Also a Resurvey made by said Wood thereon, and the patents thereon issued to the said Wood on the first of June 1730

Frederick County to wit By virtue of a special warrant of Resurvey granted out of his Lordships Lands office of this province to Joseph Wood of the County aforesaid to resurvey a certain tract of lands called Wards Lott bearing date by renewal July 20. 1740 to resurvey the aforesaid Lands to attend all errors and to add the contiguous vacancy &c I therefore certify as Deputy Surv.r under his Excy Samuel Ogle Esquire Governor of Maryland. I have carefully resurveyed the aforesaid lands and find the original contains one hundred and twenty six acres as formerly I have added fourteen hundred and fourteen acres of contiguous vacancy all which will appear p.r the platt below. Beginning at a branched white Oak standing on the east side of a small branch a draught of Ligatown Creek it being the original beginning tree running thence North seventy nine degrees east seventeen perches then south seventeen degrees West one hundred and thirty nine perches then north thirty nine degrees West one hundred and six perches then north four degrees West one hundred and six perches then north forty four degrees west thirty four perches then south thirty four deg.s west one hundred and forty perches then south twelve degrees west one hundred and eight perches then south sixty two degrees east thirty four perches then south twenty six degrees west eighteen perches then south sixty seven degrees west fifty three perches then south eleven degrees west twenty six perches then north sixty six degrees west twenty six perches then north one hundred and twenty perches then south forty three degrees west one hundred and ninty perches then south twenty three degrees west fifty one perches then south eighty six degrees west one hundred and sixty three perches then south four degrees west forty perches then south seventy three degrees east thirty perches then south fourteen degrees west thirty six perches then south forty seven deg.s west sixty perches then north seventy six degrees west twenty perches then north seven degrees West one hundred and ninety eight perches then north forty one degrees and one half degree East thirty six perches then north one degree west one hundred and six perches then north sixty two degrees east thirty perches then south thirty four degrees east eighty perches then north fifty two degrees east three hundred and sixty seven perches then north sixty eight degrees west fifty four perches then north nineteen degrees west sixty perches then north fifty seven degrees east one hundred and six perches then south fifty one degrees east forty perches then north seventy degrees east forty six perches then north twelve degrees east sixty two perches then north forty six degrees west fifty one perches then north eighty two perches then south eighty seven degrees east one hundred perches then south twenty degrees east two hundred and fifty eight perches then north two hundred and thirty perches then north twenty seven degrees east one hundred and seventeen perches then north forty seven degrees east one hundred and forty perches then south forty eight degrees east one hundred and six perches then south twenty nine degrees west one hundred and eighty three perches south nineteen one perches then by a straight line to the beginning tree containing and now laid out for fifteen hundred and forty acres of land to be held of Conigocheig Manor

Resurveyed January 10.th 1749

Isaac Brooke Deputy Surveyor
Frederick County