hereby give and devise to my said son as aforesaid and to him, his heirs and assigns forever

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son Philip Hammond aforesaid the following negro slaves viz Dick, Peter, Jacob, Sam and Cattlings Pete with Wachet and Basil with all and every of their increase to belong to my said son his executors, administrators and assigns forever, also my fashionable silver hilted sword and knee buckler and my silver shoe buckles and stands, and a parchment account book with four quires of writing paper, a paire of good Cart wheels Shod sled, two good plough horses, twelve heads of sheep, twelve heads of Cattle and fifteen heads of hogs, also a riding horse a good feather bed and pillow, with a paire of sheets and two blankets

Item. It is my will and desire, and I therefore do hereby direct that all the starling rents monies arising from the leases of my Cotts at the Elkridge landing, be received by my wife and sons and applied by them if requested towards the maintainance of them and the education and support of my several children and that they continued to receive the same yearly according to the tenor of the leases and as before directed, until my son Philip Hammond attain this legal age of twenty one years to take and enjoy the lands out of which the aforesaid rents Money issues

Item. I give and devise unto my son John Hammond and his heirs and assigns forever the following tracts of lands viz. Southern Addition, Weathers Levying and all the lands received of my fathers estate called Bishops range, Bishops Outlots and part of Howards resolution, which said lands (formerly Bishops) make about six hundred and twenty acres in the whole, also three other tracts of lands belonging unto me the one called Turkey point, another Darkness Converted into Light and the other called Mill Farm with all the improvements of every kind whatsoever belonging to the aforesaid several tracts of land

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son John Hammond aforesaid his executors, administrators and assigns the following negro slaves viz Old Sham, Old Cuno, Catharina, Mager, Cattlings Lucy, Long Hager

Lizb, Isaac, young Cuno, Jeffery, Salt and Priss with every of their future increase also the sum of fifty pounds Common Circulating Money with a young black riding horse called Othello, and two good plough horses, twelve heads of sheep, twelve heads of Cattle and fifteen heads of hogs, a parchment account book with four quires of writing paper, two Shoe forks, one paire of hands Mill stones, one grind stone, and one paire of good Cart wheels Shod sled, two good horse Collars, two paire of hamness, two good paire of Shoe traces, a good new plough share, four good axes, four new broad hoes, a paire of good Shoe wedges a fromgh, one Cross cut saw and a whip saw, also a good feather bed and pillow and paire of sheets and iij Blankets

Item. I give and devise unto my son John Hammond aforesaid his heirs and assigns one lott of land at the Elk ridge Landing numbered thirty two, and to my son Charles Hammond his heirs and assigns one other lott of land there numbered thirty three each containing about an acre of land as may appear by my plat or plan of the Town thereabout reference to me.

Item. I give and devised unto my son Reginald Hammond his heirs and assigns forever the several following tracts or parcels of land viz part of South Canton and of Addition to Chance (that is to say all that part of South Canton and Addition to Chance which layeth on the south side of deep bottom branch the water course whereof I hereby assign to be the proper boundary between my two sons Philip and Reginald Hammond aforesaid) with my part also of Bodys adventure and the lands called Hughes Enlargement, Balls Enlargement and Cockys Enlargement, also Forlain, Addition to Jacksons Chance, Part of Humphreys Venture, part of Humphreys Search, Mill Dam and Mill Dam supply together with the buildings, mills and all manner of improvements and appurtenances in any wise belonging unto the aforesaid several tracts of land, also the lands called Jacksons Chance, Bard Rock Hopes Plains and part of Rockholds Purchase with all and every of their appurtenances and improvements upon the death or decease of my wife Rebecca Hammond to whom by a former paragraph of this my last will and