one and that each of them shall accept of one equal part thereof at such appraisement Item it is my will that if any of my sons or daughters or their heirs or descendants even to ye end of the world shall either marry a person of the roman catholick persuation or themselves embrace that religion that in such case neither they nor any of them shall take any benefit of this my will but that whatever is bequeathed or intended to be bequeathed them shall immediately revert to ye proper use and behoof of such apostates next protestant heir and in ye same line being protestants continue to the end of the world any thing in this will before mentioned to the contrary notwithstanding Item Whereas I am sensible of ye great difficulty of penning a will therefore to avoid all misconstructions and disputes that may hereafter arise touching my intent in devising my lands I hereby declare that wherever the foregoing or subsequent words of this my will does imply an entail I would have it so construed tho the same be not so fully & amply worded as the law may require of which I leave the Commissary or Commissary's Genl of this Province for ye time being to be ye sole judges provided they will decide any controversy of that nature that may arise in a summary way & upon their refusal to decide it without a formal law suit which experience teaches to often brings the contending partys to penury and want I order that such division as my Trustees or the major part of them shall make & enter or cause to be entered upon the County records shall be final & from thence shall be no appeal to any court of justice whatever I further hereby declare yt it is my intent and meaning that my lands shall pass from one to another in ye same order as I have herein before set down in case of lawful issue and not to be sold to the end of the world though the said children had different mothers Lastly I hereby ordain constitute and appoint my loving wife & my sons Thomas Truman & Henelin Truman Greenfield to be Executrix of this my will and Testament and I humbly intreat my kind relations & very good friends Messrs Daniel Dulany Henry Holland Hawkins Leonard Hollyday John Stoddart William Whitkinson Philip Key and Thomas Gantt to be assistants in advising my Executrix & Executors and to see this my will performed and in case of the death of my wife before all or any of my comes of age to dispose of such minor & their Estates as they shall see convenient and also to let and set my Lands as they shall think most proper for my children's advantage till they shall come of age and in case of the refusal to act death or absence of any of my trustees aforesaid I will that the major part or all those who accept the charge have the same power to act as the whole had or might have had by virtue of this my will in Witness whereof to this last will and Testament contained in eight pages I have affixed my seal and set my hand this third day of February Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and thirty signed sealed published & declared in presence of John Forbes. Thomas Brookes St. Marys County. Thomas Addington James Kay Rand Morris John Burch.

T. T. Greenfield (seal)

Maryland Sc. St. Marys County Sc. Whereas I have in ye body of my will given to my son Henelin Truman all that tract of land called Seigby I hereby revoke some part of that bequest hereby bequeathing the two northermost hundred.