be equally divided between my wife children Thomas Leonard Clement Elizabeth and Mary Holliday Lastly I do constitute and ordain my dear and loving wife and my eldest son Thomas Hollyday Executors of this my last will and testament and I do hereby revoke all other wills by me formerly made In Testimony that what is contained in this sheet of paper is my true last will and testament I have in the presence of the Witnesses subscribing & attesting signed published and declared it so to be and also fixed my seal to the same this seventh day of November in the year of our Lord Christ one thousand seven hundred and thirty nine signed sealed published and delivered in the presence of us ye words & his spouse & her spouse first Interlined

James Bosnell. Ann Waring Leonard Hollyday (seal)

Sarah Greenfield Thomas Gantt.

On the back of the aforegoing will is thus written vizt

June 26th 1741 Thomas Gantt Senr and Mr. Ann Waring two subscribing Evidences to the foregoing will being duly sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God declared & say they saw Leonard Hollyday sign the foregoing will and heard him publish and declare the same to be his last will and Testament and at the time of his so doing he was of sound and disposing memory to the best of their apprehension and in the presence and at his request they subscribed their names as Evidences & they believe the other subscribing Evidences saw and heard the same as they did Sworn Before Peter Dent D. Comy P. Ge. County.

July 6th 1741 Then came Doct^r James Bosnell & prove the foregoing will according to the above probate

Sworn Before Peter Dent Dep^y Comy of P. G. County

In Testimony that the within and foregoing is a true copy taken from Liber D. D. No 1. folio 359 to 361 one of the record Books in the late prerogative office I have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of my Office this 23rd day of May in the year of our Lord (seal) 1804

John Gassaway Reg^r Wills A. A. Coty.

The plaintiff further gave in evidence to the jury aforesaid that afterwards on the tenth day of December in the same year the said Leonard Hollyday the first departed this life possessed of the said tract of land leaving Thomas Hollyday his eldest son and heir Leonard Hollyday the second his second son Clement Hollyday his third son and two daughters Elizabeth and Mary the plaintiff further gave in evidence to the jury that the said Leonard Hollyday the second entered upon the said Tract of land by virtue of the devise thereof to him by the said will and was seized thereof in fee tail and being so seized and having only two female children a petition was presented to the assembly of the Province of Maryland at a Session of the said assembly begun and held at the City of Annapolis the Twenty third day of February in the fifth year of the dominion of the right Honorable Frederick absolute Lord and proprietor of the said province and ended on the Twenty second of may in the sixth year of his said Lordships dominion in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty six and that in consequence of the said petition An Act of Assembly was enacted during the same Session in the words and figures following to wit At a Session of Assembly begun and held at the City of Annapolis the twenty third day of February in the fifth year of the dominion of the right Honorable Frederick Absolute Lord and proprietary of the provinces of Maryland and Avalon Lord Baron of Baltimore &c. Annoque