May Term 1805.

it was a boundary of Davies Reab Aynes and Bright feat and further saith that said Edward told him that the line of Aynes run from this place to Patuxent river near the old Bridge being asked by the Plaintiff whether Joseph Jones Isaac Jones Richard Jones and Ezekiel Jones who has deposed as aforesaid was not brothers to this Deponent and sons of Hugh Jones who was formerly Tenant to the Priest answers they are and further saith not Taken on part of plaintiff 25 April 1796. Cornelius Jones Before Richard Harwood Iff Kt Cty

The deposition of Cadwallader Edwards aged about thirty three years who being duly sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God deposeth and saith that he was present when this stone was planted that we are now at and that it was set up as a boundary of Bright feat Davies Reab and Aynes in the presence of a number of people being asked by the Defendant if he holds any land that comes to this stone and contiguous to the land of Aynes and Bright feat answers he doth being asked by the Defendant whether he was the son of Edward Edwards deceased or not answers he was and further saith not Taken on the part of Plaintiff 25 April 1796. Before Richard Harwood Iff Kt Cty Cadwallader Edwards. The deposition of Joseph Jones aged fifty three who being duly sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God and being at a red oak tree on the Bank of Patuxent river near the Black holes deposeth and saith that he and his father was fishing in said river and his father came to the tree we were now at and put his hands on it and said it was the priest Bounded tree and said that the Priest line came from Edwards bounded tree where the stone now stands heretofore proved by this defendant in another deposition taken at the said stone to this straight tree by a straight line and further saith that his father told him it was the out line of the Priest land called Aynes and further saith that his father informed him this deponent that the land from said tree up the river belonged to old Joshua Warfield and the Land from said tree down the river belonged to the priest and further saith that Thomas Bayford son of Thomas deceased one day as they were on the road pointed to said tree and said the Priest line came from the stone and bounded tree of Edwards with a straight line to the said tree we are now at being asked by the Defendant if either of the said persons told him who bounded the said tree answers they did not being asked by the Defendant whether he observed there was any fresh notches on the said tree answers he was in about four or five steps of said tree and did not notice whether it was marked or not being asked by the defendant whether it was not a noted place for childrens fishing answers it was a noted place for childrens fishing at it and mens too being further asked by the Defendant whether the out side line of Aynes came to this tree answers he always understood it did being asked by the Defendant if he knew who run the line and at what time answers he did not for he never made any enquiry about it being further asked by the Defendant whether it was a north west line or not answers he doth not know but that he heard the line came to the said tree and further saith not Taken on part plaintiff 25 April 1796. Joseph Jones.

May Term 1805

Before Richard Harwood Iff as a bounty. The deposition of Richard Jones aged about fifty one years who being duly sworn on the Holy Evangel of Almighty God and being at a red oak tree on the bank of Patuxent river near the black hole deposeth and saith that he and his father and his brother Joseph Jones were fishing in patuxent river and after they were done fishing his father came to this tree and said that was the Priest bounded tree laying hand on the said tree at the time and further saith that his father told him that the Priest land Aynes came with a straight line from Edwards bounded tree then pointing his hand to the bank said here or here about to ends the Priest line and the land from the tree heretofore mentioned up the river belonged to old Joshua Warfield and the land down the river belonged to the Priest and further saith that he always understood from Thomas Bayford and his son Thomas and old Thomas