Ann Arundel County to Wit: May the 24th 1788 came Daniel Carroll Junr. one other of the Subscribing Witnesses to the within will and took the same oath taken above by Robert Brent Junr.

Before, Ele Vallette Reg. L.

In Testimony that the within and foregoing is a true Copy taken from Liber W.D. No. 1 folio 261 & 262 one of the Record Books in the late prerogative office I have hereto set my hand and affixed the seal of my Office this 3rd day of May in the year of our Lord 1805.

Register of Wills Seal

John Gassaway Regr. Wills A. A. County.

And also gave in evidence to the Jury that after the death of the said Richard Molyneaux the said George Hunter the devisee in the said last mentioned will named entered into the said lands called Nyno under and by virtue of the said last mentioned will and became thereof seized, and being so seized afterwards made and duly executed his last will and testament and then departed this life leaving the same in full force and unaltered by which will he devised the said tract of land called Nyno in fee simple to a certain James Walton, who entered into the said land under and by virtue of the said devise, and became thereof seized and being so seized died afterwards make and execute a deed or declaration which with the several endorsements thereon made was produced and read in evidence, and here follows in these words and figures:

I James Walton of the County of St. Mary and the State of Maryland do by virtue of these presents make known publish & declare in conformity and agreeably to an act of Assembly of the State of Maryland entitled an act for securing certain estates and property for the support and uses of the Ministers of the roman Catholic Religion that the real property hereafter specified viz. St. Inigo's manor and St. Georges Island lying in St. Marys County and containing about three thousand acres. the land in St. Marys County commonly called Chapel Lands containing twenty acres more or less, Brittons neck and outlett lying in St. Marys County Containing seven hundred acres more or less: St. Thomas's Manor lying in Charles County containing four thousand acres more or less, and the several lesser tracts adjoining that part of the said Manor lying on the east of Port Obacco Creek, Carrollsburg lying in Prince Georges County and Containing two thousand acres more or less; Chaneys Plantation adjoining thereto and containing one hundred and fifty acres more or less; Ridgely and Tylers Lot in the said County and containing sixty four acres more or less Hainault commonly called Ains: Bright Seat and little Bright Seat lying in Ann Arundel County and Containing seven hundred acres more or less: Thomas beginning lying in Harford County and containing fifty acres more or less: the addition to Thomas. Beginning, adjoining thereto and containing sixty five acres more or less: a part of a tract of land called Maidens Bower secured lying in Harford County and containing eighteen acres more or less:

a part of a tract of land lying also in Harford County on deer creek commonly called Pogmods and containing thirty six acres more or less: two lotts of ground in Baltimore Town in Baltimore County; Mountain Prospect lying in Frederick County and containing six hundred acres more or less; the lots of ground belonging to me in Frederick Town in Frederick County, my lands on or near little Bohemia river in Cecil County containing about eleven hundred acres more or less; my lands at or adjoining St. Josephs in Talbot County containing one hundred and forty four acres more or less and also all other my lands and real estate whatsoever in the State of Maryland and all the mixed and personal property annexed and appertaining to these several estates hath been and now is held by me the said James Walton under a confidential or implied trust for the use benefitt and maintenance of the ministers of the Roman Catholic Church now exercising their ministerial functions within the United States of America, agreeably to the rule and discipline of their church and who were formerly members of the religious society, heretofore known by the name of the society of Jesus. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this third day of October anno Domini 1793.

James Walton (Seal)

Signed Sealed and delivered in presence of Henry Barnes, Henry H. Chapman.

At the foot of the aforegoing instrument of writing was thus written to wit: State of Maryland Charles County to Wit; October 3d 1793 Then came before us two of the States Justices of the peace for the County aforesaid the Revd. Mr. James Walton and acknowledged the within Instrument of writing to be his act and deed and that the whole of the property which he is now in the actual and rightful possession of whether real or personal or mixed is by him vested in manner and form according to the true intent and meaning of the act of Assembly, Entitled "an act for securing certain estates and property for the support and uses of the Ministers of the Roman Catholic Religion.

Acknowledged Before and Certified By,

Henry Barnes, Henry H. Chapman

At the same time to Wit: on the day and year last aforesaid personally appeared before us the Subscribers as aforesaid the Revd. Mr. James Walton and made oath on the holy evangels of almighty god that all the property whether real personal or mixed now in his actual possession he always and now bona fide holds for pious purposes acquired either before the fourteenth day of August in the year seventeen hundred and seventy six or acquired since that time in exchange for property held before the said fourteenth day of August seventeen hundred and seventy six in manner as in the within written declaration is expressed and for the purposes as therein mentioned.

Sworn Before,

Henry Barnes
Henry H. Chapman.

Recorded the 15th day of October 1793