Thu
holida
24th, a
2nd, 19

The fi
Circuit A
M. E. Ch
parsonag
cember

Mr. G
past wee advises
purch
higher

The Chee
Chu ch will
Dec mber 4,
per will coni
and salad. P
lic cordially i

Arrangemer
Roland Rippo
Christmas tree
ball r om at Se evening, Decemb
7.30 o'clock.

Due to the Prince Fr Christmas play being held on night, December 18th, at 8 o' Parent-Teachers Association h poned the December meeting regular meeting da te in January

Miss Ruth Barbe, of Hyde's, spent the Thanksgiving holiday Mr.
Mrs. Thomas S. King, of Lower M boro. Mr. and Mrs. King spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. Q.
Mitchell, at Hyde's.

The local chapter of the Ameri
Red Cross will hold its regular mon meeting at the Calvert County Hosp on Tuesday afternoon, December at 3 o'clock. It is especially desired t all pers ns subscri ing to the ann Roll Call this year be present.

A pageant, "Christmas Night," w be given at Fair View School on Frid night, December 17th, at 7.30 o'cloc On the same night there will be car singing around the Christmas tree o the lawn. Come and enter into the spiri of Christmas.

A card party for the benefit of Christ church school will be held in the Parish Hall, Mutual, on Saturday night, December 11th, begigning promptly at 8 o'clock. Bridge and five hundred will be played. There will be a number of attractive prizes given. Admission 50 cents.

Kay Magaha, the three-year-old daughter of Offi er and Mrs Charles W Magaha, of Prince Frederick, was painfully burned on one ear and a small sec tion of her face, when, in climbing up to her place at the table she accidentally pulled a cup of scalding coffee over on herself last week. Dr. Page C. Jett rendered the necessary treatment.

Mrs. Leslie Turner and sons, Thomas and Donald, Miss Pauline Cox and Mr. Charles Smith spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Garner, at Leonardtown, and on returning Mrs. Garner came back with them to spend the rest of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cox, near Farran.

Arrangements have been made for a musical and illustrated lecture to be given in the Parish House of St. Paul's Church, Prince Frederick, on Monday evening, December 6th, beginning at 8 o'clock. Canon Arrowsmith, of the Pro-Cathedral, Baltimore, will give the lecture and will show pictures on the Cathedrals of Europe. Mrs. Clyde Collinson, contralto soloist, of West River, will give a group of songs. Admission, Adults, 35 cents; children, 25 cents. Public cordially invited.

Mrs. L. Herbert Chaney, chairman of the committee making arrangements for the supper to be given by the P. T. A. of the Calvert County High School, on December 4th, at the school, is being assisted by members of the Association in making plans for a very nice supper. The supper will include turkey, vegeta-

aft
mot ion.
Marlbo
ing hima
and pulle cycle. The property in against the t
they were eac $1000, and. at were told where Hitaffer, of Hya
also arreste on a
and confined in th

Warns Cutters

A plea for the cutti holl in such a way as fu ther Maryland's alre source of supply has been State Forestry Departm
Quick, Assistant State Fo holly trees have been exten ready in large areas of Ma jacent to Baltimore and Wa and that improper methods of threatened to extend the denud

Instead of allowing their holly to be stripped of all their branche to be chopped down, owners should sist on the kind of cautious pruning will keep the tree in shape to yield ture harvest, he advised.

He announced the State Forestry D partment would cooperate with owne of the woodland tracts, by providin them with placards warning off tres passing holly-seekers and by givin them advice in cutting of their holly when requested.

The department also is acting as a clearing house for customers who wish to buy holly direct from the grower, inment.

land with
and in a f