Ross, has been named to a teaching fellowship as assistant in chemistry while he pursues his doctor's degree at Georgetown University for 1938-39. It was announced by Dr. Gilbert W. Mead, president of Washington College, this week. Ross is the second Washington student to be thus honored in two years.

Alma Lee Bowen celebrated her sixth birthday on Thursday, March 24, entertaining a host of her little friends. They all spent a pleasant evening, playing games and opening gifts, after which they were invited to the dining-room for refreshments, and where there was a large birthday cake lighted with six candles. The little folks left for their homes after wishing Alma Lee many more happy birthdays.

There will be a meeting of the executive board of the Garden Federation, together with the presidents and directors of the member clubs and the chairmen of the standing committees, prior to the spring meeting on Friday, April 29rd, at the Belvedere Hotel, Baltimore, at 11 a. m. Those members of the Calvert Club, who come under this list, are urged to attend this meeting.

Mrs. A. CLAUDE TURNER,
President of Calvert Federated Garden Club

Death of Wm. J. Roberson.

William J. Roberson, formerly of Norfolk, Va., a native of Edgecomb county, North Carolina, but who for the past six years had been living in Prince Frederick, died suddenly at about noon on Friday of last week. Mr. Roberson had been out attending to his affairs as usual during the morning, shortly before noon going into the Hotel Calvert, and was there only a little while when he fell to the floor and expired. Dr. J. N. King made an examination, and stated that death was due to a heart attack. The deceased had been afflicted with a heart malady for the past few years.

He was aged 58 years, and was the husband of Mrs. Mildred Arnold Roberson, of Norfolk. He was a contractor and builder, and came here to work on the Calvert County High School when it was erected six years ago. He remained here afterwards, and had the contract for other important buildings which have since been erected in the community. For a few years he also had been a carrier for the Baltimore Sunpapers. He had become very well known in the community, and held the respect and confidence of all who knew him, as well as having made a number of warm friends here.

Besides his wife, Mr. Roberson is survived by a daughter, Miss Alma Olive Roberson, and two sons, William J. Roberson, Jr., and Howard Roberson, also of Norfolk.

The remains were taken to Norfolk on Saturday night, and the funeral was held in that city on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Work of Clean-Up Week.

As a result of the efforts of the Federated Garden Club of Calvert county in its Clean-up Week campaign here, a road force has completed the grading and leveling of the large space in front of the Court House lawn in Prince Frederick, and the telephone company moved back two or three poles which were too close to the highway in the heart of the town. The work of each force required several days and has resulted in quite an improvement. Clean Up Week in Calvert began last Monday, the 4th, and continues to Monday, April 11th. Especially during this period the citizens of the county vie with each other in their efforts towards cleaning, repairing and beautifying their premises, though to many of us every week is clean-up week. The good work should not end with the close of the official week.

As a stimulus towards the desired end, the Federated Garden Club offered prizes for the best posters for Clean Up Week made by pupils of the public schools. Mrs. Harry E. Hughes, Miss Frances I. Gruver and William W. Duke were judges of the Prince Frederick schoo posters, and awarded the first prize to Jack Kirby, 4th grade; the second to Sara Gray, 5th grade, with honorable mention to Donald Mohler, 6th grade, Esther Robinson, 3rd grade, Helen Buckler, 8th grade, Rachel Bratley, 7th grade, and Ellen Ross, 5th grade.

At Huntingtown school, Carl Gibson won the first prize, and John Gibson, second.

The most outstanding of these posters were placed in conspicuous public places.

Death of Mr. John R. Chaney.

Mr. John R. Chaney, of Dunkirk, died at the Calvert County Hospital Friday morning of last week, after a lingering illness. He was aged 64 years and was the husband of Mrs. Drusilla Crosby Chaney. His parents were the late Walter and Caroline Harrison Chaney. He is survived by his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Milton Dowell, and two sons, Ernest and John Chaney, all of Dunkirk, and a brother, James Chaney, of Washington.

The funeral was held at Smithville M. E. Church Sunday morning last.

Solomons to Have Sun-rise Service.

An Easter service in a lovely setting will be held on Sandy Point, overlooking the Chesapeake Bay at Solomons. The service will commence about ten minutes before sun rise, or 5.30 a. m. The participating churches will be Olivet, St. Paul M. E. South, St. Peter's and Middleham Chapel and Solomons M. E. Church. Rev. Douglas Chandler will conduct the service. Rev. Mr. Paff will speak on the Easter theme, while special music will be rendered by the combined choirs of the churches. The entire service will last about 30 minutes and much interest is indicated.

New Rector for St. Paul' and Christ Church.

The Bishop of Maryland has placed Rev. H. Kearney Jones as minister-in-charge of St. Paul's and Christ Church Parishes, to fill the vacancy resulting from the recent resignation of Rev. Durrie B. Hardin. Mr. Jones has just completed his course at the Virginia Theological Seminary at Alexandria, and will be ordained as Deacon in St. John's Church, Waverly, on Wednesday morning next. He will take charge of the Calvert Parishes on May 1st.

Lenten Services.

The Lenten services of the Methodist Episcopal churches of Calvert Circuit will conclude with special services in observance of Holy Thursday, April 14, and Good Friday, April 15. On Thursday evening at 7.30 the Last Supper will be commemorated in a communion service at Wesley Church, Prince Frederick, with a brief meditation by the pastor. On Good Friday Mrs. Miranda and Calvary churches will unite in holding at Calvary Church a three-hour service, beginning at 12 o'clock noon. The Seven Last Words from the Cross will be interpreted by various ministers, including the following: Rev. John H. Snyder, Rev. Mack Thomason, Rev. Douglas R. Chandler, Rev. C. E. Kirby and Rev. S. Paul Schilling. Selections by the choir and soloists will enrich the service.
