Harmony Hall.

Among the houses to be shown on the Maryland Garden Pilgrimage this spring is Harmony Hall, one of the most interesting in our State. When the estate was patented in 1662 by Humphrey Haggett it was called "Battersea," which name it kept until 1793, when two young married couples rented it and lived there in such congenial happiness that they called the house Harmony Hall. This name gradually superseded the legal one of Battersea, until in finally found its way into the official record about 1850.

Harmony Hall was probably built about 174 5and evidently changed hands several times before the property was purchased in 1769 by Enoch Magruder. It was maintained by him and later by his son, Dennis Magruder, jointly with their inland residence, Mt. Lubentia, some 30 miles away. This same Dennis undoubtedly needed both residence as he was married four times and had 22 children.

Harmony Hall still contains the original flooring, woodwork, panelling, stairway and hardware. Another interesting house on the property is Want Water, probably built in 1695 and known to have been owned by Col. Thomas Addison in 1776. It was bought by Enoch Magruder in 1761. It was at Want Water that young Enoch Magruder Lyles died after his tragic duel with his cousin, John Frazier, in 1805. His grave may still be seen in the churchyard at St. John's, Bladensburg.

The Standard Coupe

Do you want to SAVE MONEY?

The Standard Ford V-8, with 60-horsepower engine, gives you a lot of car for a little money.

300,000 new owners acclaimed the "thrifty 60" last year. Hundreds a day are buying it in 1938. Why?

Because it is priced low—includes essential equipment without extra charge—and goes farther between filling stations than any Ford car ever built. Owners all over the country report averages of 22 to 27 miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

But economy isn't all the story by any means. The Standard "60" is built with the same precision as the De Luxe "85," and has the same 112-inch wheelbase chassis. It is easy to look at and ride in—as well as easy to buy and run. There's a Ford dealer near you.

4-H Members Offered Awards to Report On Rural Electrification.

Information is being sought from 4-H Clubsters of the state this summer through the National 4-H Rural Electrification Program which is designed to advance the use of electricity on farms along the most efficient and economical lines. Approval and supervision of the contest by the State Extension Service makes all club boys and girls eligible for putting it on.

Clubsters are asked to report on the use of electricity in their county, canning and other projects, or how it might be used; to practical and economical reasons for the use of various electrical appliances; describe any activity like discussions or demonstrations on the farm use of electricity; submit a record of general 4-H activities, and describe electrical projects or activities on wiring and installation and care of appliances.
