Baseball.

St. Leonard's baseball club, sporting the greatest number of 275 batting per cent, continued its winning streak Sunday by defeating Huntingtown 7-0. The visitors were walking away with the game, when Scoring five runs in the first three innings, with only one hit, but St. Leonard's suddenly came to life and unleashed attack, turning defeat into victory. The feature of the game was the pitching of Earl Purdon, who allowed but six hits and no earned runs, with six strike outs, two in the last inning.

The battery honors for Huntingtown went to Eddie Sears, with three hits out of five official times at the bat, for St. Leonard's, H. Selby with three hits out of four official times at the bat.

This week St. Leonard's plays Greenleek at Greenock, and Huntingtown at St. Leonard's again on Sunday, April 24th, at 3 o'clock.

Licenses are Required to Transport Poultry.

On April 1, all persons other than producers and retailers of poultry that was dressed when purchased are required to be licensed under the Poultry Sale and Transportation law, either to sell or transport poultry, or both, it is announced by S. B. Shaw, chief of the Maryland State Department of Markets. The law requires, Mr. Shaw stated, that after April 1, the names of all persons or firms who have not secured the required license or tags be reported to the proper police officials responsible for enforcement of this law.

Applications for licenses and license tags to be used on all vehicles transporting poultry should be made to the Maryland State Department of Markets, College Park, Md. The fee for license to purchase, sell or deal in poultry in any way, except as mentioned, is $2.00. The fee for license tags on vehicles transporting poultry is 50 cents for each vehicle so used. Mr. Shaw also calls attention to the fact that all licenses issued under this law expire on March 31 next.

Annual Health Conference.

Arrangements for the eighteenth annual health conference of the field and departmental staffs of the State Department of Health, which will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26 and 27, have been announced by Dr. W. H. Riley, director of the department. The conference will be held at the Longfellow Hotel, Baltimore. Dr. Riley will preside.

The meetings on Tuesday will be devoted to the State program for venereal disease control with special reference to clinic procedure and follow up measures. At the morning session, the activities carried on through the local departments of health will be reported upon and discussed by the county health officers and clinics under the leadership of Dr. J. Earle Moore, consultant of venereal diseases of the State Department of Health.

The part of the public health nurse in the control of venereal diseases will be discussed at the afternoon session by Miss Mary Dunn, regional consultant in public health nursing of the U. S. public health service and by staff nurses under the leadership of Miss Catherine Carey, nurse instructor of the State Department of Health. There will be brief papers on case finding and holding; the instruction of individuals and groups, and on the role of the nurse in the prevention of congenital syphilis.

The plans for the session on Wednesday include a report by Dr. A. W. Herrington, chief of the bureau of vital statistics on the intensive campaign, now under way in the State to bring out of four official times at the bat.

This week St. Leonard's plays Greenleek at Greenock, and Huntingtown at St. Leonard's again on Sunday, April 24th, at 3 o'clock.
