Those who attend are assured a particularly enjoyable time.

Every effort will be made this year to have the games start before 8:30, and the committee requests those who attend to help make this possible.

Mrs. Chaney Killed by accident.

The relatives and many friends of Mrs. Carrie Higgins Chaney, wife of Captain Leroy L. Chaney, were deeply shocked and grieved to learn of her untimely death on Wednesday evening last at the Calvert County Hospital at 7.30 o'clock, where she was taken after being struck by an automobile driven by Gordon Poole, of 1026 13th street northwest, Washington, who owns a cottage at Cove Point in Calvert county. Mrs. Chaney was walking across the highway at her home at Lyons Creek about 5:30 o'clock when she was struck by the car, and died two hours later at the Hospital, where she was taken at once after the accident. Both of her legs were crushe and fractured, and she also received other injuries. According to Poole, Mrs. Chaney obviously did not hear or see the approaching machine, and, although he went to the opposite side of the road to get out of her way, it was impossible to avoid hitting her. Poole was placed under arrest by Officer Cpas. W. Magaha on a reckless driving charge, and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 00 before Justice George Lewis, at Friendship, for a hearing. An inquest will be held before Justice Lewis next Tuesday.

Mrs. Chaney was 76 years old, and was the daughter of the late James W. Higgins and Elizabeth Jones Higgins. She is survived by one brother, James W. Higgins, of Lyons Creek, and two step-sons, Lieut. Herbert Chaney and Mr. Alex. Chaney, of Owings.

The funeral will held this (Saturday) morning at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's P. E. Church, Prince Frederick.

Memorial Window Dedicated.

A handsome memorial window in St. Paul's P. E. Church, Prince Frederick to the late John Brown Gray, well known attorney of Prince Frederick, who died last August, and his wife, Mrs. Kate Laveille Gray, who died in 1916, given by their family, was dedicated Sunday morning last at 11 o'clock at St. Paul's Church, with an impressive service by the Rev. Durrie B. Gardin, rector of the church until he resigned to become rector of Christ Church, Easton, March 1st last. Rev. Mr. Jardin preached a sermon on with loves in human and buildings, giving some historical data, and the wine-own of the soul. A special musical program was rendered by the choir. Additional seats had to be placed in the church to accommodate the very large congregation, representing many sections of the county and various denominations.

The window, the work of the Miller Art Glass Studios of Baltimore, is on the southeast side of the church, and conforms to the style of the other memorial windows in the building. Rich in coloring, but simple and dignified in design, it bears the inscription, "To the glory of God, and in memory of John B. Gray, 1853-1917, and Kate L. Gray, 1860-1916." Below the inscription an open book shows in Roman numbers the Ten Commandments.

Items from Solomons.

Mrs. Ormsby Webster is spending the week at Bogota, New Jersey, with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Klein. Mrs. Webster was summoned there because of the illness of her sister, Miss Grace Cole.

Mrs. Reynolds Evans was hostess on Thursday of last week to the Calvert County Federated Garden Club. The cultivation of tulips and daffodils was the subject for discussion.

Mrs. Clarence E. Davis and daughter, Mrs. Barnes Hall, of Baltimore, were visitors at Solomons last week. Mrs. Davis expects to return to Solomons for the summer months the middle of May.

Mrs. Gunther Wallen, who has been spending the winter and spring with her mother at Palm Beach, Florida, returned to Solomons recently with her infant son.

A dormitory for the Chesapeake Biological Laboratory is now under construction. It is being erected in the rear of the building and is for the use of summer pupils and instructors. It will probably not be completed until the fall.

Mr. Joseph C. Lore, who has been confined to his home here by illness recently, is much improved and is now able to be up and about the house.

Mrs. Mack Jones is visiting her son, Harold Jones, of Philadelphia.

4-H Style Revue.

The Benea 4-H Club held a style revue at the Parent-Teachers Association meeting at North Beach last Tuesday. The garments styled were made by the girls their first clothing projects, peasant aprons, skirts and dresses, mostly of cotton, being the garments exhibited for the parents and friends of the community. The revue opened with a reading by Beatrice Myers entitled "A Dress," and after the revue the 4-H girls sang two of their club songs; the 4-H activities were explained by the girls' leaders, Miss Angela Feiser, Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. W. A. Williams, local leader. Miss Dorothy Tedwein acted as judge. The following received the awards: Doris King, for construction; Doris Stebbins, for construction and styling; Beverley Tucker, for styling, and Mildred Marquess received honorable mention on styling.

Concert by Prominent Choir.

A musical opportunity similar to that provided by the visit of the Boston Seminary Singers will be afforded the people of Calvert on Saturday, May 7, when the well-known choir of First M. E. Church, Baltimore, will present a concert in the Town Hall at Prince Frederick at 8 p. m. Both sacred and secular music will be sung. The choir is composed of 28 mixed voices, and is directed by Earl Evans, minister of music at First Church. Its work in recent years has won wide acclaim.

The concert here will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Societies of the M. E. churches of Calvert Circuit. The proceeds will be used toward the painting of the exterior of the parsonage. Reserved seat tickets (adults, 40 cents; children, 25 cents) may be procured from any of the following: Mrs. George Boyd, Mrs. C. T. Hutchins, Mrs. Daniel Lyons, Mrs. Thomas Hardesty, Misses Eleanor Bond and Catherine Buckmaster at Goldstein's store, or the M. E. parsonage.

School Board Receives Bids.

The County Board of Education, at its meeting on Tuesday last, received the following bids for building the colored high school building which it will build on the Dare's Beach road. For furnishing all material and erecting the building according to plans and specifications:

For plumbing fixtures: George W. Dorsey, $1044; Edward R. Rausch, $1500 00; W. S Ward, $1595.

Contracts will be awarded to the lowest bidder in each case.

Musical Tea.

The musical tea given by the Barstow Homemakers Club, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Reid Hutchins, at Barstow, Sunday afternoon last from 3 to 5, was a delightfully arranged and much enjoyed affair, and attended by a large number of persons, representing various sections. The program included: Vocal solos, by Mrs. Bennett Beach, Mrs. Lyle Simmons and Mrs. T. Reid Hutchins; a vocal duet, Mrs. Jesse Boyden and Miss Dorothy Tucker; a solo by women's voices, accompanist, Mrs. Robert Harkness; piano duet, Mrs. Vernon Bowen and Miss Edna Lyons, and a piano solo by the former; vocal trio, Mrs. Harry Harkness, Mrs. Farrow T. Prout and Mrs. C. T. Hutchins, and a male quartette, Augustus Helsek, Carey Bowen, Arthur Bowen and Alonza Young, singing three negro spirituals, and a piano solo by Mrs. George M. Boyd.

In an intermission tea was served in the dining-room. Mrs. Joseph Sunderland presiding at the table.

School Safety Parade.

A delegation of 1,250 Maryland boys and girls will go to Washington May 7 to participate in the seventh annual school safety patrol parade. They will be joined by groups from six other States and the District of Columbia. The total is expected to exceed 10,000. The marchers will gather at 9.30 A. M. on the mall near the Capitol. The parade will disperse at the Washington Monument, and the children will be permitted to visit the Washington Zoo and the Federal buildings for the rest of the day.

The school safety patrols are sponsored by the American Automobile Association, in cooperation with affiliated motor vehicle clubs. The Automobile Club of Maryland is sponsoring the State delegation, which is to be the second largest to assemble for the demonstration.
