The meet was conducted by the county schools, and the referee was T. C. Ferguson, State Supervisor of Physical Education and Recreation in the State Department of Education.

King—Schumann.

A very pretty wedding took place at Riverside Baptist Church, Baltimore, on May 14, when Miss Carrie Gestrude Schumann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Louis Schumann, became the bride of Mr. Edward Ridgeway King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard King, formerly of this county, but now residing in Baltimore The pastor of the church, Rev. D. W Littleton, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon with a veil of white net, which fell to the shoulders, white gloves and carried a bouquet of white lilies. Miss Beulah Schumann, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pale aquamarine chiffon with matching hat and gloves and carried red roses.

Mr. Leon Hodges served as best man and Messrs. Linson O'Neill and Milton Miller were ushers. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Leslie Stuart, of Baltimore, sang "I love You Truly" and "Because," while during the ceremony the organist, Mrs. Bernard McHone, played softly "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a trip to New York.

The National Game.

The Huntingtown baseball club is playing on a new diamond this season, and it is certainly a wonderful improvement over the old one. Senator Lansdale G. Sasscer was present there some time ago when the team played its first League game of the season. It is still the same fine, dependable team it has always been, and some additions are probably for its betterment. Page Tucker, the new pitcher, for one, took mighty good care of the club's interests in last Saturday's game, and the small un-looking Ford is a terror at the bat. Huntingtown played Owings, and won the game in the score of 9 to 8. It was a particularly exciting game. The two teams are pretty evenly matched. The young fellows of Owings, for the most part under 20, have a lot of youthful pep, know baseball and how to play it. In the game mentioned there were four Watkins on the team, including the redoubtable Earl in the pitcher's box, W. Parkes, H. Brady, Marquess, M. Gibson John Alex. Cuaney, and last, but far from least, the Hardesty twins, who are so much alike that it's a wonder they don't get mixed up themselves.

The Sand Runners, of Dare's Beach, in the game of baseball played on May 22nd, won a decisive victory over the Sea Ticks of Owensville. The score was 16 to 8 in favor of the first team which is composed of Henry Postler, Frank Mister, William Horsman, Ken with Buckler, George Freeland, James Young, Bert Ireland, Edgar Hutchins Thomas Weems, Wilbur Morris, Milton Ramsey, Cleveland Young, Frank Smith On the other nine are: Manning Hall, William Hooper, Jr., Carey Bowen, Arthur Bowen, Albert Conner, Harrison Buck, Roy Buck, Emmett Hutchins, Dorman Hall, William Cochran, Jesse Bowen, Oscar Hammett, Clifton Wood.
