SEPTEMBER 16, 1938

The primary election on Monday next will afford every voter an opportunity to express a choice for candidates for the general election. Every voter should exercise the right to do so. It is impossible to elect proper and suitable officials unless suitable candidates are selected at the primary election.

The list of Democratic candidates in the primary election is rather a long one, including candidates for U. S. Senate, Congress, all the State and many county offices, and the voters are to make selection of those to be voted for at the general election.

As far as we can learn, the preferences of our people are: Senator Isaacs for Governor, Tydings for Senator, Jones for Attorney General, and Gambrill for Congress.

Senator Tydings has made an able representative, and deserves another term. Congressman Gambrill has rendered good service, and there is no doubt of his selection. Former Assistant Attorney General Willis R. Jones has proven his fitness for Attorney General.

Senator Isaacs, one of Southern Maryland's brightest sons, was considered to be the leader of his party in the last Maryland Senate, over which he presided. His fitness cannot be questioned.

Youth Council at Camp Matoaka.

The second annual fall outing of the Calvert County Youth Council, originally announced for September 10, has been postponed because of a conflict in dates until Saturday, September 17, at Camp Matoaka. The program, which will begin with supper at 5.45, will combine social, devotional and recreational features. Last year's outing attracted an attendance of about 100. More are expected this year. The complete program follows:

5.45 supper, each person bringing his own. 6.45 Vesper service, theme: "Finding God in Nature." Speaker: Rev. Ch. Kearney Jones. 7.30, brief business session before the fireplace in the recreation lodge. Plans for fall activities, election of president, etc. 8, folk games and other group games led by Miss Frances Gover, closing with singing by moonlight on the knoll overlooking the bay. The outing is open to all the young people of the churches of the county.

Franklin's Epitaph

The original copy of Benjamin Franklin's epitaph for himself is in the collections of Yale university.

Men and Women of Maryland:

This is my last chance to address you through the county press, before the Democratic Primary Election on next Monday, September 12.

I am using this opportunity to ask that you vote for me as the Democratic nominee for United States Senator from the State of Maryland.

For sixteen years I have served in Congress; for twelve of these years as United States Senator. During the course of this campaign I have given you an accounting of my stewardship, discussing the various measures which I have supported, as well as those which I have opposed, and have stated frankly the reasons for such actions. In every instance I have endeavored to promote the welfare of our State and Nation.

With your support I will continue to work for legislation which expresses the Maryland point of view, and which is in the best permanent interest of labor, of the farm, and of business.

I have not called upon any one outside of our State to persuade or influence you to vote for me, feeling that this election was one solely for the people of Maryland to decide.

And finally, I thank most sincerely each one of the many thousands of men and women who have worked hard for my renomination. To them I shall always be grateful.

Most sincerely,

Millard E. Tydings
