prayed further leave to imparle thereon until the second Tuesday of September then next and he had it the same day was given to the Plaintiff and so forth. —

At which day towit the second Tuesday of September Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and eighty three here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the aforesaid Samuel Glenn by his Attorney aforesaid prayed further leave to imparle thereon until the second Tuesday of April then next and he had it the same day was given to the said Plaintiff and so forth. — At which day towit the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and eighty four here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the aforesaid Samuel Glenn by his Attorney aforesaid defended the force and injury when and so forth (as before) and said that he was not Guilty of the Trespass and Ejectment above laid to his charge in manner and form as the said Titus Justright hath above thereof complained against him; and of this he put himself upon the Country, and the aforesaid Plaintiff did the like — Whereupon this cause being ready for trial, further Process of and upon the Premises aforesaid between the Parties aforesaid by consent of the said Parties and their Attorneys aforesaid, and by order of the Court here thereon was continued until the second Tuesday of September then next following.

At which day towit the second Tuesday of September Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and eighty four, here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid. Thereupon further Process of and upon the Premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by consent of the said Parties and their Attorneys aforesaid and by order of the Court here thereon, was further continued until the second Tuesday of April then next following. At which day towit, the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and eighty five here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid. Thereupon further Process of and upon the Premises aforesaid between the Parties aforesaid by consent of the said Parties and their Attorneys aforesaid and by order of the Court here thereon, was further continued until the second Tuesday of September then next following. —

At which day towit the second Tuesday of September Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and eighty five here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid. And thereupon the said Samuel Glenn by his Attorney aforesaid pleads that after the said second Tuesday of April Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty five (from which day the Action aforesaid was continued hereon until this day to wit, the second Tuesday of September Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty five) the said Robert Thompson the Lessor of the Plaintiff at Cecil County aforesaid, died; and this he is ready to verify: Wherefore he prays Judgment of the Writ aforesaid; and that the same may be quashed &c. Thereupon day is given as well to the said Titus Justright as to the said Samuel Glenn until the second Tuesday of April next. —

At which day towit the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty six, come here again the said Parties by their Attorneys aforesaid; And the said Titus Justright by his Attorney aforesaid replies that his said Writ ought not to be quashed, by reason of any thing above pleaded by the said Samuel Glenn to quash the Writ aforesaid, because he saith, that the said Plea pleaded in the manner and form aforesaid, and the Matter therein contained are not sufficient in law to quash the said Writ; to which plea he is under no necessity nor in any wise bound by the law of the land to answer; and this he is ready to verify: Wherefore he prays Judgment, and that his Writ may be adjudged good &c. — And the said Samuel Glenn (inasmuch as he hath above alleged sufficient matter in law to quash the writ aforesaid, which he is ready to verify; which matter the said Titus Justright doth not deny, nor in any wise answer thereto, but totally refuses the verifying thereof) as before prays Judgment of the writ aforesaid and that it may be quashed &c. And upon this the premises being seen, and by the Judges here fully understood, it seems to the said Judges here, that the plea pleaded in manner and form aforesaid, and the Matter therein contained are not sufficient in law to quash the writ of the said Titus Justright. Therefore it is considered — that the said Writ be adjudged good and that the said Samuel Glenn further answer the said Titus Justright to his writ aforesaid &c. Thereupon day is given by the Court here until the second Tuesday of September next to answer &c. the same day is given to the aforesaid Titus Justright &c. — At which said day, towit, the second Tuesday of September Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and eighty six, comes again as well the said Titus Justright Lessee of the aforesaid Robert Thompson by his Attorney, as the said Samuel Glenn by his Attorney aforesaid, and the said Samuel Glenn by his said Attorney says that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the aforesaid Titus Justright
