specified, and was made and passed for no other purpose, and upon no other consideration, cause, or account whatever. And the said Archibald further saith, that he the said Ralph did then and there take, accept, and receive the same supposed writing obligatory with the condition afs. of him the said Archibald for the purpose, and upon the consideration, and for the cause as afs., and no other whatever, and upon the proviso and condition afsd., and that he the said Archibald was not, at the time of making and entering into the articles of agreement afs., or at the time of the making and passing of the said supposed writing obligatory, or at the time of the execution of the Deed of conveyance afs., indebted to the said Ralph Green in any other respect, or upon any other account whatever. And the said Archibald further saith, that although the said Ralph Green in his life time and the said Amelia his wife, did make and execute the Deed last above mentioned to the said Archibald as afs., for the several tracts of Land in the Articles last afs. mentioned, Yet the said Archibald saith and doth aver, that at the time of the making and entering into the articles of agreement last afs., and at the time of the making and passing the Deed last above mentioned, and of the said supposed writing obligatory with the condition afs., part of the afs. tract of Land called Addition to Teverton, in the same Articles of Agreement and Deed last afs. mentioned, to wit, twenty five acres thereof, which, at the times last above mentioned, was and ever since, hath been, and still is included and contained within the metes and bounds mentioned and contained in the Patent of the afs. tract of Land called Addition to Teverton, then and there did lie and was included and contained within, and was taken away, and now doth lie, and is included and contained within, and is taken away by the Lines metes and Bounds of an Elder Tract of Land, lying in the same County, called Brannock's Regulation which same last mentioned Tract of Land was Patented & granted to a certain Edmund Brannock, Henry Brannock & Philemon Brannock and to them the said Edmund, Henry and Philemon did then and there belong to wit, at the County afs.; and that one other part of the same tract of Land called addition to Teverton, to wit, seventeen acres thereof, which, at the times last afs., was, and ever since hath been, and still is included and contained within the metes & Bounds mentioned and contained in the Patent of the said tract called Addition to Teverton, then and there, at the same times last afsd., did lie, and was included and contained within, and now doth lie, and is included and contained within, and is taken away by the Lines, Metes, and Bounds of one other tract of patented Land lying in the same County called Thomas's Chance, then and there belonging to a certain James and Matthew Sarrard; of all which said Several Matters and things the said Ralph Green in his life time then and there had notice. And the said Archibald Talison further saith & doth aver, that the said Ralph Green and the said Amelia his wife, or either of them, either at the time of the making and entering into the same Articles of agreement last afs., or at the time of the making and execution of the Deed of conveyance last afsd., or at the time of the making and passing of the writing obligatory afs. and the condition afs., or at any other time whatever, before or afterwards, had not any good right or Title to all the Lands which, at the several times last afs., was and ever since hath been, and now is included and contained within the metes and bounds mentioned and contained in the Patent the afs. tract of Land called Addition to Teverton, in the same articles of Agreement and Deed last afs. mentioned, and that the said Ralph Green and the said Amelia his wife, or either of them, or their or either of their Heirs, never did at any time whatever, either by the Deed last afs., or by any other Deed or conveyance, or by any other ways or means whatsoever, convey, assure, and make a good right and Title in and to all the Land, which at the times of the making of the articles of agreement last afs., and of the making & passing of the Deed last afs., and the supposed writing obligatory last afs., was ever since hath been, & now is included and contained within the metes and bounds mentioned & contained
