And that thereof he the said Sheriff was not to fail at his Peril and that he should have then and there that writ, &c.

And which said second Tuesday of September, seventeen hundred and eighty six, being the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, came the said Thomas B. Veazy by William Tilghman his Attorney, and the Sheriff of the County aforesaid, to whom the same writ was directed, likewise came and made return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed, to wit: "Cepi. Geo: Hanson Shff."

And the said Henry Tuloch by his Attorney aforesaid came here into Court: Thereupon at the prayer of the said Thomas B. Veazy, the said Henry Tuloch was ruled to give Special Bail in the plea aforesaid: Whereupon the said Henry Tuloch by his Attorney aforesaid, affiled here in Court the following Bail piece, to wit:

Thomas Brocus Veazy @ Henry Tuloch } Now Josiah Johnson and Philip Reed do jointly and severally acknowledge yourselves Special Bail for the said Henry Tuloch at the suit of the Thomas Brocus Veazy in an Action of Debt brought by the said Thomas Brocus Veazy against the said Henry Tuloch, in the General Court of the Eastern Shore of Maryland: They acknowledge themselves to be content therewith; this ninth day of September seventeen hundred and eighty six.

Before John Scott.

To the Honourable the Judges of the General Court of the Eastern Shore of Mary.

Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid, between the parties afs. by consent of the said parties, and their Attorneys aforesaid, and by order of the Court here thereon, was further continued until the second Tuesday in April then next.

At which said second Tuesday of April, seventeen hundred and eighty seven came again the parties aforesaid; and the said Thomas B. Veazy by his Attorney afs. affiled his Declaration in the plea aforesaid against the said Henry Tuloch in manner and form following, to wit: The Eastern Shore of Maryland, Kent County, ss. Henry Tuloch late of Kent County Farmer, otherwise called Henry Tuloch Junr. of the County of Kent & State of Maryland, was summoned to answer unto Thomas Brocus Veazy of a plea that he render unto him three hundred and seven pounds & ten shillings Current money of Maryland which to him he owes and unjustly detains, &c.

And whereupon the said Thomas Brocus Veazy by William Tilghman his Attorney says, that whereas the said Henry Tuloch the younger, on the twenty first day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty five, at the County aforesaid by his certain writing Obligatory, with his seal sealed and to the Court here shown, the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid, acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the said Thomas in the aforesaid sum of three hundred and seven pounds, ten shillings current money of Maryland, to be paid to the said Thomas when he the said Henry should be thereto afterwards required: Yet the said Henry altho' often required the sum of money aforesaid to the said Thomas hath not paid but the same to him to pay hath hitherto altogether refused & still does refuse to the damages of the said Thomas four hundred pounds current money of Maryland & therefore he brings suit, &c.

Wm. Tilghman. — Pledges, &c. — John Doe. Richard Roe.

And the said Thomas B. Veazy by his Attorney aforesaid, prayed that the said Henry Tuloch Junr. to his Declaration aforesaid might answer: Whereupon it was ruled by the Court, and at the prayer of the said Thomas, that the said Henry should answer to the Declaration afs. by the second Tuesday in September then next; and it was said to the said Henry that if he should not answer to the Declaration aforesaid, by the time afs. Judgment should be rendered against him by default: The same day was given to the said Thomas Brocus Veazy there, &c.

And now here at this day, to wit, the second Tuesday of September, seventeen hundred and eighty seven, came again the parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid: And the said Henry Tuloch Junr. by his Attorney aforesaid, saith that he cannot gainsay the action aforesaid of him the said Thomas B. Veazy, nor can he deny but that he detaineth from the said Thomas, the aforesaid sum of three hundred and seven pounds, ten shillings current money, in such manner and form as the said Thomas above against him hath complained: Therefore it is Considered by the Court here that the said Thomas B. Veazy do recover against the said Henry the debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid acknowledged; and also the quantity of pounds of Tobacco, as well for his damages which he hath sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt as for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, unto the same Thomas by the Court here with his Assent adjudged, &c. And the said Thomas in mercy, &c. James Earle Clk.

Judgment was rendered in this action on the twenty sixth day of September,
